

THE MOOSE JAW TIMES.

VOL. X.—NO. 19.

MOOSE JAW, N. W. T., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1898.

$1.50 PER ANNUM.

BLANKETS!

BLANKETS!

THIS is the time of year when every one who owns a horse will be looking for a blanket for the winter. We want to tell you what we have done and what we can do for you in prices. We have bought over 200 pairs of horse blankets direct from the largest manufacturers at the very lowest prices and had them shipped in at car load rates. This gives us every advantage over our competitors who have been buying from jobbers and shipping them by local rates and some even by express [this we know]. Here are a few of our prices:

GLOVES, MITTS, FELT SHOES, ETC.

We have the largest assortment in town of these goods having bought them on the same basis as our blankets, namely, Direct at Lowest Prices. In Robes we have a large stock of the very finest Mountain bear skins which are going at astonishing low prices. Our stock of Rubbers and Overshoes is complete and prices right. If you are going on a trip remember our trunks and valises; the largest stock west of Winnipeg.

We can give you a good Dute Blanket 3/4 lined for $2.25 per pair.

" " " " heavier for $2.75 "

" " a better Dute 7/8 lined for $3.75 "

" " an All-Wool-Blanket . . . for $5.25 "

NOTE.—These Blankets are all wool lined, and the last mentioned ($5.25 per pair) is our celebrated Burlington Stay-On, made to fit your horse, with two surges sewed to blanket and bound all round with a good webbing. You can Save Money by buying Your Blankets from Us.

R. E. DORAN.

CENTRAL HALL.

Thursday,
Friday,
Saturday,

And Saturday Matinee,
Nov. 10, 11 and 12.

The Great McEwen,

The Up-to-Date Hypnotist,

Assisted by Miss Grace Maynard, the most wonderful cataleptic subject now travelling.

Admission, - - - 35 & 50c.
Reserved Sale at Moose Jaw Drug and Stationery Store.

Xmas 1898. New Year '99.

OCTAVIUS FIELD

WHOLESALE DEALER & IMPORTER OF WINES, LIQUORS AND —CIGARS.

Having just received the last direct importation for the season, my stock is now complete in both imported and domestic goods, consisting of the choicest brands of Irish, Scotch and Rye Whiskies, Brandies, London Old Tom and Holland Gins, Rum, Ports, Sherries, Champagnes, Claret, Sauternes, Burgundies, Ginger and Native Wines, Liqueurs and Bitters, Bass' Ale and Guinness Stout, Cigars, Cigarettes, Etc.

Terms Cash. Orders by mail receive prompt attention. Business hours from 8 to 20 o'clock.

Octavius Field.

LOST.

Strayed from Moose Jaw about Oct. 17th, 1898, one bay colt, no marks, about five months old. Any information that will lead to its recovery will be thankfully received. H. T. HEATH, Moose Jaw. 19-21p

AGENTS WANTED.

To sell our monuments throughout Manitoba and the North-West Territories. Something new. Secure your territory at once. Big profits. THE METALLIC MONUMENT CO. of Toronto, Limited, 341 Yonge Street, Toronto.

GLOVES & MITTS.

We are offering to clear at a great bargain 75 pair of men's lined over mitts worth 60c., but clearing for 35c.; a good leather overmitt for 25c. per pair, regular 35c. and 40c.; also a full line of men's mitts and gloves, all kinds and prices. Men's coon gauntlets $4.50; wombat $3.75. Ladies' seal gauntlets $5.50; Astræan $6.00; grey lamb $5.00. Ladies' imitation lamb gauntlets 75c. a pair worth $1.25, assorted colors and very neat. All styles from the 25c. wool mitts to the pure silks at $1.25 and $1.75. Full line of children's.

Hosiery,--Full Stock. This season we have the best lines we ever showed in Hosiery for children and ladies. Stockings by the yard at 15c., 20c., 25c.

FOOTWEAR.

Don't forget us for footwear. We have everything to be found on the market to make comfort for the cold weather. Men's genuine No. 1 Dolge's, men's Ames Holden All-Felts at $4.90 and $5.00; men's leather foxed felt soles at $3.50. This is a new improved line and fills the objections to an all felt at a moderate price. Also a felt lined boot at $2.00, and felt congress at $2.00. In Ladies' Goods we start the felts at $1.00, $1.50, $1.90 and up to the all felt at $4.00. Ladies' lined Bals, at $1.60; Black Dongola flannel lined, $2.25, and chocolate $2.75, very fine and nobly goods. Also a range of children's felt goods. When you want a pair of overshoes, don't pass us by, as we are sole agents here for the Granby Rubbers and Overshoes, which have the reputation of being the best.

Robinson & Hamilton.

P.S.—If you have not received one of our new price lists just drop a card or call and we shall be pleased to give you one. Show it to your neighbors and compare our prices. Always glad to add new customers to our list and make the relations pleasant by good goods and low prices.

Important to Farmers!

We have received two car loads of the Celebrated Zess Patent Cultivator—the best cultivator on earth. Why have the Government Weeds Inspector calling on you when you can buy this "sur'den death to the weeds cultivator" from the undersigned.

C. A. GASS, Agt.

WAGHORN'S GUIDE A POCKET DIRECTORY TO MAN & MONEY 50c v/b

GIVE US A CALL.

GOVERNMENT SUSTAINED.

HAULTAIN AND ROSS WIN AN EASY VICTORY.

Neff Defeated in Moosomin, Speaker Beets in Prince Albert, and Dr. Brett in Bantf — Willoughby and Eddy, of Regina, and Several Other Candidates Lose Their Deposits.

The results of last Friday's general elections did not contain many surprises, and from the point of view of those who believe that the Haughtain-Ross Government deserved to be sustained the results leave very little room for regret.

SOUTH REGINA.

Mr. Smith, the straight Government candidate, has been defeated, but here that Mr. Hawkes could only secure election by getting into the position of a straight Government supported before polling day came. The returns to hand show:

HAWKES	SMITH	EDDY
Regina.....	111	125	41
Balgownie....	30	4	1
Pilot Butte....	6	6	0
Camden....	25	9	0
Newton....	54	7	1
Coulee....	11	13	2
Sherwood....	7	17	6
Buck Lake....	4	5	0

Brookeshell gave Smith 2 majority. Maple Creek..... 9 17

Crane Lake..... 5 19

Swift Current.... 7 13

Walsh..... 6 2

Dunmore..... 23 22

Gull Lake..... 6 6

Rush Lake..... 6 3

Sask. Landing..... 3 3

Monday—Latest election returns are:

Greeley 317, Findlay 273, Calder 272.

SOURIS.

Connell (Ind.) is elected over Young (Govt.) by about 50 majority.

SALTCOATS.

Lake (Govt.) is elected over Richardson (Ind.) by a large majority. Richardson loses his deposit.

MEDOMIN.

Full returns give Smith (Govt.) 608, Neff (Opp.) 391. Majority for Smith 217.

WOLSELEY.

All returns in: Dr. Elliott elected by 52 majority.

MEDICINE HAT.

A dispatch Friday night gave the following:

FINDLAY, CALDER, GREENBAY.

Medicine Hat..... 170 139

EAST CALGARY.

Maple Creek..... 9 25

CRANE LAKE.

Crane Lake..... 5 56

SWIFT CURRENT.

Swift Current..... 7 49

WALSH.

Walsh..... 6 6

DUNMORE.

Dunmore..... 23 2

GULL LAKE.

Gull Lake..... 6 5

RUSH LAKE.

Rush Lake..... 6 2

SASK. LANDING.

Sask. Landing..... 3 3

EAST CALGARY.

Monday—Latest election returns are:

Greeley 317, Findlay 273, Calder 272.

WILLINGHAM.

Riley, in East Calgary, stands with 49 majority, with 19 objected ballots additional. This possibly may be changed, owing to the confusion between the green and the blue crosses. He had the blue color, and claims the election. There will be a recount next Saturday. Sporting men are still betting heavily on the result in East Calgary.

WEST CALGARY.

Bennett (Ind.) is elected by about 100 majority. The other candidates were Muir, Stuart and Riley. The later loses deposit.

ALL CANDIDATES IN BOTH THE CALGARY DISTRICTS ARE AS INDEPENDENTS.

HIGH RIVER.

Wallace (Opp.) had 30 majority with three places to hear from. The other districts are as follows:

BANFF.

The first dispatch Friday night was to the effect that the election was very close, and that the final returns would give Dr. Brett, leader of the Opposition, a small majority over Sifton.

Later returns put Sifton 40 votes ahead, with still some places to hear from.

RED DEER.

Simpson (Govt.), the old member, elected by 84 majority with two polls to hear from. Speakman (Ind.) loses deposit. A third candidate was Greene, who commenced as an independent but ended as a Government supporter.

EDMONTON.

McCauley has 59 majority with 3 polls to hear from which will increase majority.

The vote now stands: McCauley 52, Rutherford 453, Roberson 193. The latter loses his deposit.

BATTLEFORD.

Returns all in give E. Prince, (Ind.), a majority over J. M. Skelton (Opp.) of 54.

This is the largest majority ever received by a candidate in this constituency. Thus the only two candidates who ran in Battleford and Vickers in South Qu'Appelle are defeated.

MITCHELL.

Electoral very close. Stewart leads by

10 majority with three polls to hear from which are expected to be about even.

BATOCHIE.

Chas. Fisher is elected in Batoche by 50 majority over Boucher, the late member.

KINISTINO.

W. F. Meyers is returned in Kinistino by 36 majority with one small place to hear from.

PRINCE ALBERT EAST.

Seven places McLeod (Ind.) 58 votes ahead of Betts (Govt.).

Voting at Cumberland House does not take place until one week later.

There is a strong probability that Mr. McLeod will be elected over the late Speaker.

PRINCE ALBERT WEST.

Prince Albert and two outside places give Agnew 3 majority over McKay (Opp.). The probability is that McKay will be elected.

SUPREME COURT.

On Tuesday the Hon. Mr. Justice Richardson held a sitting of the Supreme Court when the following matters came before him:

Robins vs Riddell:—This was an action for wages. Judgment for Plaintiff for $7.15, but Plaintiff ordered to pay Defendant Riddell's costs. Willoughby for Plaintiff. Johnston and Grayson for Defendant.

Battell vs Flack:—This was an action for the price of horses. Judgment reserved. Willoughby for Plaintiff. Johnston and Grayson for Defendant.

McLean vs Campbell: This case was on the list but the matter was laid over for further consideration. This was an action to recover money paid on a lot purchased by the Plaintiff from Defendant.

Several Chamber matters came up before his Lordship and were disposed of.

Riddell vs McDougall:—This case did not come up for hearing, but will be disposed of again.

STONY BEACH.

Stony Beach, Nov. 9.—Mr. H. W. Richardson was greeted by a good sized audience in the school house last evening to hear his charmingly entertaining and instructive lecture on "Love Courtship and Marriage," enlivened with Scottish song and story. Mr. Richardson so aroused the eloquent talents of the young people there that after the close of his delightful lecture, Mr. Frank Porter proposed that they have some recitations and songs by a number of young ladies present. Miss Sarah Young, who gave a recitation entitled "Woman's Love," gave evidence of marked ability as an orator. The others whose parts were performed very gracefully were Miss Ida Love, Miss Jessie Fletcher, Miss Maude Love and Mr. Jerry Toms. Mrs. Geo. Sheepard led the choir, whose singing added largely to the profit and attractiveness of the evening's enjoyment. Mr. John Fletcher occupied the chair, and though his first appearance in that capacity performed his duties in a very intelligent, graceful and acceptable manner. The success of the enterprise was owing a good deal to the persistent efforts of Mr. Frank Porter, whose abilities as manager and director are of high order. The entertainment was concluded by all uniting in singing "God Save the Queen." Mr. Richardson will appear in Huron Chumash, Buffalo Lake, to-night under the auspices of the Presbyterian Church.

Child For Adoption.

Any person desiring to adopt a fine healthy boy, five years of age, would do well to apply to MAGGIE McARTHUR, Moose Jaw, Assa.

OFFICIAL TIME CANADIAN WAGHORN'S GUIDE, 50

A BRUTAL MURDER. THE WORLD'S NEWS.

WILLIAM HAMMOND KILLS E.
SMITH WITH AN AXE.

A Desire for Revenge is Supposed to Have Prompted the Commission of the Deed.

Victoria, Nov. 7.—A brutal murder was discovered at Saanich this morning and there is every reason to believe that the murderer was the man hitherto unidentified, whose remains were found in the woods near Esquimalt several days ago, and now said to be those of one William Hammond. His victim was Henry Edmond Smith, son of Henry Smith, who keeps a grocery store at the corner of Government and John streets. The young man went out to Saanich on the 20th of his sixth birthday. He had not been heard from, so this morning his father went out to visit at his cabin at Saanichton. Finding the place locked up, the father burst open the cabin door and found the body tightly wrapped under the bunk. The murderer just before killing him cut the axe which almost severed young Smith's head. The gold watch hanging up on the nail in the undisturbed contents of the cabin told that robbery was not the object of the murderer, whose motive was probably hatred of the Smiths.

The murderer must have sprung upon his victim as he slept. The ranch upon which the murder was done formerly belonged to Hammond, who was indebted to Smith, and a short time ago an arrangement was made whereby, in consideration of the liquidation of the debt and the payment of a certain sum to Hammond, who was formerly a blacksmith attached to one of the vessels of the Esquimalt station, was allowed to live in the cabin. It was an illiterate man and could neither read or write. For many years past, since he received his discharge from Her Majesty's service, he had been wandering about the province, railroading, steamboating and mining. He returned to Saanich about eighteen months ago, having come down from Yale in a small canoe, which he exhibited to all he knew and told of his voyage. Men who knew Hammond to-day identified him as the remains found in the woods near Esquimalt a week ago. He had died from heart failure, the coroner's jury said, while wandering through the woods. He had probably been torn with fears of capture and visions of retribution, and his mental anguish had brought on the disease which had killed him. When the remains of the murderer were found they were lying on the back, with the mouth wide open, and the features distorted, showing that the murderer had died in great agony. Hammond, when death overtook him, had $34.50 in his pocket, a box of priming caps and a flask half filled with whiskey. He was buried on Wednesday.

THE PROHIBITION VOTE.

The Figures Analysed—A Curious Fact in Connection With the New Franchise Law.

Ottawa, Nov. 1.—Of the total available vote on the first 22 1-2 per cent. was polled for prohibition in the plebiscite of September 21, and 21 1-2 per cent. was voted against prohibition, and 56 per cent. remained unpolled. This is the net result of the vote, as far as it has been analyzed, and though there may be some modification upon further examination of the returns, which have been officially made, the statement may be accepted as practically correct. It will be seen that less than half of the available vote was polled, and that less than one-quarter of it favored prohibition as a remedy for the evils of the liquor traffic. It is true that anti-prohibitionists did not make as good a showing as their opponents, but they will likely set up the claim that 56 per cent. cannot be regarded as a neutral element. It will possibly be urged that they are entitled to add the unpolled vote to that of the hostiles, making an adverse per centage of 77 1-2 per cent., or failing this, that in considering the demand for prohibition legislation, parliament will not be justified in relying upon non-voters to aid in the enforcement of a law which they did not ask for.

On the provincial lists, which formed the basis of the plebiscite under the new franchise act, there were 1,233,849 valid votes, of which 542,956 were polled, 22 1-2 per cent. for prohibition and 26,522 against. The favorable majorities in the several provinces aggregated 128,931 and the adverse majority for prohibition being 107,899, and against 34,015, placing the prohibitionists in the lead by 13,884.

The returns have developed a curious and interesting fact bearing on the subject of the franchise laws and the administration of the same. As has been stated, there were on the provincial lists 1,233,849 names. According to the latest returns, after revision under the old franchise act in 1894, there were 1,368,736 persons entitled to the federal franchise, so that four years after the making of these lists, with the natural increase of the voting population, and large extension of the franchise in the provinces particularly in Ontario, there was a diminution of voting power of the country of 134,887 votes. The obvious conclusion is that there must have been wholesale stuffing of the lists under the old franchise system.

The percentage of votes polled for prohibition in the different provinces was: Ontario, 27 per cent.; Nova Scotia, 34 per cent.; New Brunswick, 30 per cent.; Prince Edward Island, 38 per cent.; Manitoba, 25 per cent.; British Columbia, 16 per cent.; Northwest Territories, 27 per cent.; Quebec, 8 per cent.

Majorities for prohibition in the provinces were as follows:

Ontario	39,224
Nova Scotia	29,216
New Brunswick	17,335
Prince Edward Island	8,315
Manitoba	9,412
Northwest Territories	3,414
British Columbia	983
Total	107,899
Majorities against:	Quebec
	94,015
Total for prohibition	13,884

TUESDAY, NOV. 8.

Lord Herschell is visiting Indiana. Six persons were drowned near Pelee Island. The London street car strike continues. Montreal's scavenging system is discontinued. W. F. Myers is elected in Kinistino by 26 majority. The British-Venezuelan arbitration is proceeding slowly. State elections take place in the United States to-day. The steamer Northern Belle was burned at Byng Inlet, Ont. The Marquis Yamagata Aritomo has found a cabin for Japan. Tramway Hall feels confident of carrying New York elections. Sarah Ann Clegg, a talented writer on domestic subjects, is dead. Fifty million white fish eggs have been placed in the Selkirk hatchery. Quebec is preparing a grand reception for Lord and Lady Minto. The Presbyterian synod will open in St. Andrew's church to-night. Betting is 10 to 7 in favor of Roosevelt for governor of New York. The British bark Glen Huntley was abandoned in the South Atlantic. London papers urge the United States to retain possession of the Philippines. There is a difficulty between the post office department and the Allan Line. The Dominion revenue increased $2,351,986 during the past four months. The famous Langtry case is recalled by the suicide of Langtry in Paris. Winnipeg will submit by-laws for a public library, electric lighting and a cemetery. John Laughlin, Liberal M. P. P. for Nipissing, was unseated for illegal acts by agents. Archbishop Brucheshi is opposed to Montreal's proposal to abolish tax exemptions. Canadian exports to Great Britain during four months past amounted to $1,228,652. Lord and Lady Aberdeen were presented with several farewell addresses in Toronto. The British and Russian admirals forced the Turkish troops in Crete to embark on transports. It is reported at St. John's, Nfld., that British cruisers will seize St. Pierre and Miquelon if the latter does not pay. A plot to overthrow the government and murder the friends of Dreyfus has been discovered in Paris. Trouble is feared to-day between whites and negroes in North Carolina and other southern states. William Hammond murdered Henry E. Smith at Saanich, B. C., fled to the woods and died of heart disease.

MONDAY, NOV. 7.

Major Walsh's Yukon report is published. The new Wesley church was dedicated on Sunday. Mr. Dryden's majority in South Ontario is 151. St. John's won the Winnipeg Rugby championship. Rosedale mines shipped 3,100 tons of ore last week. Seven miners were killed in a shaft at West Pittston. Prince George of Greece will be governor of Crete. The Ontario Rugby championship was won by Ottawa. A G. P. R. bridge near Margate was burned on Saturday. The Hooley revelations have caused a sensation in London. Robert Paul, grocer, died suddenly at the general hospital. Lord Herschell was banqueted by the New York Lotus club. Additional Northwest election returns are coming in to-day. The cigar smokers of Winnipeg are agitating for union wages. Admiral Noel forced the Turkish garrison to embark at Candia. One man was killed and two injured by a train at Minneapolis. Elections will be held in forty-two of the United States to-morrow. It is reported that Germany and Turkey have formed an alliance. The Emperor of China received the Ambassador in audience. Charles Postlethwaite, of Brandon, is charged with larceny of wheat. The London street car strike continues without prospect of settlement. Lord and Lady Aberdeen were banqueted by the citizens of Toronto. French detectives are watching the Duke of Orleans and Prince Napoleon. General Kitchener was presented with a sword of honor by the city of London. M. Pavloff and some Russian sailors were refused passage on a Chinese railway. Parisian papers bitterly denounce the government for their surrender of Fashoda.

The war preparations continue in Great Britain and war seems inevitable. Eleven persons were killed by the collapse of the New Wonderland theatre at Detroit. An explosion of gas caused great damage in the United States supreme court at Washington. Trinity University conferred the degree of D. L. L. on Lord Aberdeen and Sir Oliver Mowat. The Queen has stood godmother of the posthumous son of Captain Findlay, who was killed at Atbara. Five men who plotted to kill President Moreira, of Brazil, were sentenced to long terms of imprisonment.

SATURDAY, NOV. 5.

Canadian trade generally is improving. A crematory is proposed for Winnipeg. The London street car strike continues. Chinese troops are being forwarded to Pekin. The Ontario W. C. T. U. are in session at Ottawa. Winnipeg will hold a tax sale on November 19th. The French chamber of deputies re-assembled on Friday. Claimants to the Island of Anticosti dispute Menier's title. A militia general order provides for an unattached list of officers. The petition against J. J. Foy, in Central Territories, was dismissed.

The Emperor and Empress of Germany have sailed for Beyrout. Military and naval preparations at Hong Kong continue unabated. The Mariana was sunk in collision with the Starneka, near Buffalo. Lord Salisbury announced the settlement of the Fashoda difficulty. The Quebec government are considering the date of the bye-elections. Disgraceful scenes were enacted in the New South Wales legislature. James Patterson, of Calgary, was thrown from his car and killed. Lord and Lady Aberdeen will attend a farewell banquet at Toronto to-night. The steamer Croton was burned at sea near Cape Charles—five lives were lost. Leclair, accused of cattle stealing, was acquitted at the Winnipeg assizes. Grain rates between Chicago and Atlantic ports will advance on November 10th. The City of Seattle arrived at Victoria with $100,000 and a large passenger list. Eliezer Mann, of Montreal, was sentenced to death for the murder of his mother-in-law. General Kitchener was presented with the freedom of London and banqueted at the Mansion House. Mr. Smart, deputy of the minister of the interior, visited the Galician settlement at Riding Mountain. The Northwest general elections resulted in the return of a large majority of government supporters. Sarah Ann Clegg, a talented writer on domestic subjects, is dead. The Spanish peace commissioners refused to admit the United States position regarding the Philippines.

FRIDAY, NOV. 4.

Lord Minto has sailed for Canada. Manitoba is agitating for a daily mail. Pittsburgh glass blowers are on strike. Mr. Andrews will sail for home on Saturday. Spain will withdraw from the peace conference. The Dominion government is shown a deficit on ordinary expenditure of $38,047,247. Mr. Douglas was unseated in East Northumberland. The C. P. R. are building a new station at West Selkirk. The powers will assume complete control in Crete to-day. General Kitchener had an important conversation from Turkey. Military and naval preparations are active at Hong Kong. The transport Panama, reported lost, has arrived at Hayava. The general elections in the Territories take place to-day. The British Columbia legislature will assemble on January 5th. The city C. E. societies held their annual meeting on Thursday. Dr. Parker of Boston urges higher salaries for school teachers. A good red new steamer from the Stikine River to Teslin Lake. Winnipeg inland revenue collections for October amounted to $148,722.40. Fiji has withdrawn her subsidy to the Canadian Pacific steamship line. The Paris peace commission will consider the Philippine question to-day. The G. T. R. freight sheds at Collingwood and steamer Pacific were burned. A Vancouver company propose establishing a new line of coasting steamers. Stringent regulations regarding electric wiring will be enforced in Winnipeg. The Trades and Labor council of Winnipeg are preparing a municipal platform.

Serious charges of immorality on the Edmonton trail are made by a U. S. editor. A Philadelphia bank defaulter has surrendered himself after seven years of wandering. A sensational story of alleged threatening to kill and blackmail comes from Ontario. Manitoba, Assiniboin and Alberta were awarded gold medals for cereals at the Omaha exhibition. Seven miners were killed in a shaft at West Pittston. Brandon citizens consider the city's assessment and taxation too high and request readjustment. Inspector De Barry reported a Canadian woman, commercial traveller on an errand from Washington.

The prospect of a amicable settlement of the Fashoda affair is officially announced in London. The London Standard publishes a sensational story accusing Major Marchand of intriguing with the Khalifa. A delegation of prohibitionists interviewed the members of Ottawa and other Canadian legislative assembly. The New York Chamber of Commerce urge an international congress to arrange protection of merchant vessels during war.

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 2.

Lord Minto is created a K. C. M. G. Small-pox is prevalent in western New York. The Dupuy cabinet has formulated a policy. The London street car strike is still unsettled. A rebellion has broken out in the Visayan Islands. Lord Aberdeen was banqueted by Ottawa. The Gloucester fishing season has proved disastrous. Deliveries of wheat are increasing in Southern Manitoba. Work is being pushed on the new Webster school house. It is reported that the Sultana mine is sold for $1,250,000. London newspapers endorse the United States Philippine policy. An unknown traitor was killed on the C. P. R. at Gaspé. Hon. John Dryden was elected in South Ontario by 124 majority. The publication of newspapers has been prohibited in China. The bye-election in Lennox will take place on November 18th. Vancouver Scotchmen offer to raise a regiment for imperial defense. Rich placers have been discovered between Dease and Atlin in British Columbia. France will abandon all pretensions in the Côte d'Or and evacuate Fashoda. Engross William presented the home of the Virgin Mary to German Catholics. The majority for prohibition, according to complete official return, is 13,884. Twenty-six election trials have been fixed for November 10th, at Victoria, B. C. The Ontario W. C. T. U. are opposed to the proposed Montgomery statue at Quebec. The funeral of the marine apprentices, killed near Margate, has been fixed for to-day. Preparations for war are being actively made in Great Britain and France. The international commissioners met at Washington and adjourned till November 9th.

The Toronto Globe's London correspondent urges Winnipeg to purchase the waterworks. Steerage passengers from Austria bound for New York have been stopped at Hamburg. Nicaragua, Salvador and Honduras have requested the United States of Central America.

Mr. Sifton's speech before the Bankers' association is published in this morning's Free Press. Essex and Kent counties, Ont., produced between five and seven million pounds of tobacco this year.

Lord Salisbury announced the settlement of the Fashoda difficulty. The flagships of the British Pacific squadron have sailed from Victoria, B. C., under sealed orders; other ships of the fleet are to follow.

THE MARKETS.

New York, Nov. 7.—Wheat receipts, 407,725 bushels; exports, 106,576 bushels. Chicago, Nov. 8.—Futures closed as follows:

Wheat	Nov. 6 43 1/2; Dec. 65 1/2
Corn	Nov. 31 1 1/2; Dec. 31 3 1/2
Oats	Nov. 23 5 8; Dec. 24; May 24 5 8
Ribs	Dec. 84 62; Jan. 9 45
Pork	Dec. $8.00; Jan. $9.05
Lard	Dec. 42 92; Jan. $5.00

WINNIPEG MARKETS.

Wheat	No. 1 hard, Fort William, 10 1/2
Flour	Patent, $2.05; strong bakers, $1.85; second bakers, $1.45; XXXX, per sack of 98 lbs., $1.15
Milk	Bran, $9; shorts, $11 per ton in bulk; large lots, 50c per ton less
Ground Feed	Barley chop is quoted at $16 per ton. Oil cake, $26 to $27 per ton
Oatmeal	Is laid down here from the States at about $1.75 for 80 lb. sacks of rolled.
Oats	25c per bushel.
Bacon	Nominal at 30c.
Butter	Creamery, 20 to 20 1/2c; dairy, 15 to 15 1/2c
Cheese	Manitoba, 8 1/2 to 9c.
Eggs	Receipts are practically nil. About 18c would be paid here for receipts of fresh, if offered. Cold storage stock has been selling to the trade at 18c per dozen.
Dressed Meats	Beef, 5 to 5 1/2c; mutton, 7 to 7 1/2c; lambs, 8c; hogs, 7 to 7 1/2c; veal, large calves, 4 1/2c to 5c; real veal, 6 1/2 to 7c.
Poultry	Mixed lots of dressed chickens will bring 10c per lb, and 12c per lb; parsnips, 1 1/2c per lb; carrots, 40c; beets, 40c per bushel; celery, 20c per dozen; cabbage, 25 to 30c per dozen; onions, $1.00 per bushel; Spanish onions, 82 per crate.
Hides	No. 1, 7c; No. 2, 6c; No. 3, 5c. Branded hides usually grade No. 2 and bulls No. 3. Kip, 6 to 7c; calf, 2c; sheepskins and lambskins, 30 to 50c; horse hides, 75c to $1.75 each; colts, 25c each.
Wool—Unwashed Manitoba fleece	8 to 8 1/2c.
Tallow	No. 1, 3 1/2c; No. 2, 2 1/2c to 3c.
Seneca Root	21 1/2c per pound.
Hay	Baled, $7 to $8 on tick nere.
Cattle	Butchers' cattle are 2 1/2c to 3c. Export cattle quoted at 30 to 34 1/2c.
Sheep	3 1/2c for good to prime animals; lambs, 3 1/2 to 4 1/2c.
Cows	Readily bring from $35 to $40, and as high as $45 and $50 has been paid recently for choice new milkers.
Hogs	Good bacon hogs, 5 1/2c off cars here.

FITZSIMMONS TALKS.

Says the Corbett-Sharkey Affair Will Not be Finished.

Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 6.—Bob Fitzsimmons, who has been down at Dayton for several days, was interviewed on festive matters this evening. He said: "I do not feel like offering any criticism of those fellows in New York. It places me in a bad position, and for that reason I do not like to discuss them. However, I think that Corbett will outwit Sharkey, but I do not believe the bout will last the entire number of rounds. Yes, I think the McCoy-Maker fight will come off. When McCoy told me he had made the match with Maher, I at once advised him to be careful of Maher. Maher is one of the most dangerous fighters in the country, and always has a punch ready to put any man out of the business. McCoy, if he is careful, may win out on points. It is the same way with Corbett. Corbett ought to blind Sharkey in twenty rounds, but I do not think that either he or McCoy can knock out his man. They may win on points, but not otherwise."

"I have always believed, and still do believe, that Corbett never made the match with Sharkey expecting to bring it to the end of the full twenty rounds. It is my opinion that the police will stop the bout just in time to prevent the people from getting their money back. Corbett had this plan in view when he made the match, and there you can determine the relative merits of the men. I have made no plans for the future, with the exception that I will finish the season on the road. I have no arrangements about meeting anybody, as I gave them all a chance now before I went out. My money is now up. You can say that I am open to any heavy weight that shows himself to be the best man in any fight.

"Let the heavy weights fight among themselves and prove which is the best man, and then I will meet him and am willing to make a match at any time for 10,000 a side. Understand that I am not now making this challenge, but if it has stood before I went out on the road, and will stand as long as I am on the road, or at any time or place."

Dora's Paradoxical Petition.

Des Moines, Iowa, Nov. 6.—Dora Schultz, the St. Paul girl who caused the arrest here of Dr. S. Fitch, to whom she thought she was married, has begun suit in the district court against him. Her petition sets forth that it is her main desire to find out whether Fitch had another wife or not. If so, she wants a divorce. If not, she wants the court to declare their marriage contract a legal wedding. This contract, it will be remembered, set forth that it was made "To waive all ceremonies of state and church." She asks an attachment for $500 on his goods. The petition says she was not 18 when they agreed to be married; that she became of age Oct. 19, and that she believes it was Fitch's intention to abandon her, as he had concealed their marriage agreement.

He was bound over to the grand jury. Proceedings will be commenced against Fitch for practicing under an assumed name.

Caravan Attacked.

London, Nov. 3.—The Rome correspondent of the Daily Mail says: "The government has received news from Massowah, in the Red Sea, that 1,000 Danakils, members of a tribe under Italian protection, recently attacked a caravan near Djibouti on the west coast of the gulf of Aden, belonging to the Abyssinian envoys who were returning from Paris to the court of the Emperor Menelik, of Abyssinia, with M. Lagarde, the representative of the French government and the late governor of Obock. The Danakils, who occupy the territory between Obock and the mountains of Abyssinia, killed four French soldiers and seized 200 camels, 4,000 rifles, a large quantity of ammunition and valuable gifts intended for the Negus. It is feared that the result will be complications with France, Russia and Abyssinia."

Washington, Nov. 2.—Sir Julian Pannefote, accompanied by Lord Herschell and Sir Richard Cartwright, secretary of the Canadian commission, called at the state department today and were met by Gen. John W. Foster, Mr. Kasson and Secretary Anderson of the United States commission. With the approval of the absent members on both sides the commission adjourned to meet on November 10. It appears that some of the Canadian commissioners would be detained in Ottawa awaiting the arrival of the new governor general.

The Loyal Scots.

Vancouver, Nov. 1.—The war outlook is so acute that Admiral Callaghan's secretary, who left here yesterday for an up country point, has been urgently telegraphed to return to Esquimalt at once. All is excitement in naval circles. The Scotsmen of Vancouver were excited last night. The strains of three pairs of bagpipes roused their martial feeling to such an extent that they instructed Chairman McLagan to telegraph to the governor general and by him to be cabled to Lord Salisbury, following the warning: "The Scotsmen of Vancouver, recognizing the gravity of the situation, offer to raise a regiment and place same at the disposal of our country for service either at home or abroad."

Preferred to Walk.

London, Nov. 7.—Street railway matters are quiet to-day. The company ran several cars, but the only passengers were policemen. Here and there as they passed the factories, bricks were thrown and windows smashed, and several cars ran off the track. The company to-day notified the post office authorities that letter carriers could ride free. They had been paid by the company because the company had been paid $100 by the post office department, for carrying the men, insisted on charging double that sum, which the department refused to pay. The carriers, however, declined to ride on the cars until the trouble is satisfactorily settled. At a meeting of directors this afternoon the course of the management to date was approved.

WRITERS AND PAINTERS.

Ernest Dodge, whose death is announced from Wittendorf, Bavaria, was well known as an artist in Boston. He studied at the School of Drawing and Painting in the Museum of Fine Arts. His father is in business in Woburn.

Mark Twain writes: "It feels so good to be out of debt that I have canceled a number of lecture engagements in Australia. We have no respect for a man who goes about robbing the public on the platform unless he is in debt."

Jules Barbier, the French playwright and librettist, has sent in his resignation as an officer of the Legion of Honor, on account of the recent suspension of Emile Zola by the council of the legion. In his letter he says, "I feel as much pleasure in returning my officer's rosette as I did in receiving it."

Very high prices were obtained at the sale of the pictures and sketches left by the late Sir Edward Burne-Jones, the 200 lots bringing in a total of $147,577, although many were mere studies or unfinished. The painting "Love and the Pilgrim," 5 feet by 10, brought $28,105, the highest price ever paid for a Burne-Jones.

THE NEW CUBA.

The Cubans will be friendly enough as soon as we begin to feed them on pumpkin pie.—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

It begins to look as though it will be necessary to give the Cubans free government on the installment plan.—Toledo Blade.

"Did you ever hear of a successful secret order?" the youngest boarder asked, "that was run solely in the interest of women?" "They do say," Asbury Peabody said, "that in the department stores the women can order cocktails served in teacups."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Educate a boy and you get an intelligent man. Educate a girl and you get an intelligent family.—Indiana Journal of Education.

ACTIVE PREPARATIONS

DEFENCES OF DOVER MANNED—WOOLWICH ARSENAL BUSY.

The Daily Mail Asked Not to Publish "Anything Which Might Prove Useful to a Possible Enemy."

London, Nov. 1.—The Daily Mail this morning publishes no news regarding England's war preparations, explaining that silence is due to a letter from the war office, asking it not to publish "anything which might be useful to a possible enemy."

"We intend to ascertain to-day," says the Daily Mail, "from the war office and the admiralty exactly what kind of news it would be permissible to publish."

The Daily Mail confirms the reports of unexampled activity at the French dockyards, notably at Toulon, where the coast forts have been experimenting with melinite shells against an old gunboat.

London, Nov. 1.—Most of the papers are full of all-fogged war preparations, despite the unbroken fact that the authorities are doing their best to prevent publication and even denying statements that have already appeared. Yesterday a sudden order was received at Dover for an experimental mobilization of the defence forces. All the heights and forts were smartly occupied in a manner giving full satisfaction.

The British channel squadron has cast anchor off Gibraltar.

The advice from Paris in the special dispatches this morning add little to what was already known regarding the situation at Fashoda. It is believed that Captain Baratier is taking very verbal instructions for Major Marchand.

The tide prevails at the French capital that Count Muravieff, the Russian foreign minister, while there on his recent visit, promised Russian support in re-opening of the whole Egyptian question and that Major Marchand will be instructed to fall back and maintain his occupation of all Balclutha posts.

MARIA TERESA LOST.

Went Down in a Gale—Her Crew Saved.

Charleston, S. C., Nov. 6.—The Maria Teresa is reported lost Nov. 1 off the Bahamas. The crew arrived here this morning on the towboat Vulcan.

The storms that raged in the vicinity of the Bahamas about the first of the month are reported to have been of exceptional violence.

Washington, Nov. 6.—Upon the receipt of the news the naval officers attached to the navigation bureau immediately consulted the charts to locate the

THE MOOSE JAW TIMES.

MOOSE JAW, N.W.T.

WHAT DID HE DO?

Jones Dislodged His Obnoxious Tenant, but How Did He Do It?

When Jones hired the front room at Mrs. Doolan's select boarding house, he was assured that he would have absolute quiet during the nights and evenings he would stay there. Imagine, then, his disgust when just a week after he had transferred his goods and chattels to his new abiding place another man moved in next door—a man with a literary tendency and a typewriter.

He was a business man of some kind during the day, but at night he would bring in a dyspeptic young man, take off his coat, light a very big and very strong pipe and then allow his imagination to run riot far into the night, while poor Jones would lie there, tossing from side to side, stuffing cotton in his long suffering ears and saying things that were much more forcible than proper.

He had just made up his mind to move again, when one night his offensive neighbor yelled out a social "good evening" and invited Jones into the room of torture.

Jones came, and suddenly his wan face lighted up into an almost joyful smile.

The next day he did not go to business quite as early as usual and was found by an astonished chambermaid doing something to the gas in the literary gentleman's room, and after he had decamped she was quite sure she heard a chuckle from his own quarters.

That night Jones was unusually gay at supper and retired early to his room. So did the aspiring author. The dyspeptic young man arrived, and soon the prance of the gifted foot and the drone of the gifted voice were heard upon the evening breeze.

On and on they went, till the clock struck 10. But no sooner had the last stroke sounded, then there was a sudden and astonished hush in the dictation, followed by sounds of scraping matches and wondering voices. The gas had mysteriously gone out. However, up it blazed again, and things began to go on all right again, when once more there was a sudden flare, followed by darkness.

When appealed to the next day, the landlady was astonished too. The gas man was astonished, and above all Jones was astonished. That night the same thing occurred, and for a week later, at the end of which time the unhappy tenant moved. Whenever the mystery is told in awestruck tones at the boarding house table, Jones is apt to be seized with peculiar quaking symptoms. Mrs. Doolan, who has brains of her own, is beginning to think he may have known more than he seemed, but the question is how?

When she asks the question, Jones looks at his own gas jet, as it protrudes from the wall exactly opposite the mysterious one, puffs out his cheeks and laughs, but answers never a word. —Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Sympathy.

The klon prins up and speaks to his father.

"And now about Bismarck, papa-ch'en," he inquired, "are we sorry?"

"We are, mein zon," replied the German emperor, playfully catching the lad a terrific blow with the whip which he always carries.

The noble boy immediately burst into a flood of tears.

Such is the perfect sympathy existing between the imperial father and son.—Pick Me Up.

Embarrassed.

"I was really very much worried about Henrietta while we were at the seashore," said Mr. Melton confidentially to his sister-in-law. "She would insist on swimming a good way out."

"Well, you are perfectly at home in the water. You could have saved her."

"Yes. But it would have taken the rest of my life to convince her that I didn't do it merely to show off and humiliiate her."—Washington Star.

His Experience.

Meeks—Let us come to an agreement of some kind and put it in black and white. Talk is cheap, you know.

Weeks—Yes, but ink is expensive.

Weeks—What do you mean?

Weeks—I let a drop of it scatter over the back of a friend's note about a year ago, and I'm still making payments on it.—Chicago News.

Repartee.

Jones—if I were you, old fellow, I wouldn't be a fool.

Brown—Quite true. Still you should not let it make you dissatisfied with your lot. Jones.—New York Truth.

DR. SANDEN'S ELECTRIC BELT.

This is the only sure, permanent way to regain vigor. It has taken the place of drugs, which never cure. Electricity is life and restores life to men who have lost it. Send for the book, "THREE CLASSES OF MEN" FREE.

Or call at the office and test the Belt free of charge. It means health and happiness to you.

DR. D. T. SANDEN,
132 St. James St., Montreal.

RESULTS FOR 1897.

LIFE INSURANCE

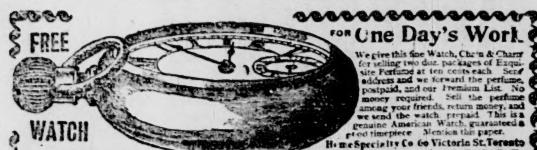

CANADIAN BUSINESS

The following is compiled from figures of 1897 furnished the INSURANCE AND FINANCE CHRONICLE by the several companies:

Name of company.	Business written.	Gain in business.	Percentage.
Great West Life.....	$2,206,200	$1,405,820	64
Ontario Mutual.....	3,631,910	1,485,719	49
Dominion Life.....	563,700	56,596	10
North American.....	3,431,524	469,208	13
Sun Life.....	4,317,292	1,256,173	33
Temperance and General.....	1,759,650	501,075	28
Canada Life.....	3,627,652	1,003,529	30
Confederation.....	3,132,672	714,649	23
Federal.....	2,068,850	85,105	4

As great emphasis is—very properly—given by all the companies to the percentage of "gain in business" to business written, it is gratifying to find that, as in so many other respects, its friends will still have reason to be proud of

THE GREAT WEST LIFE ASSURANCE CO.

HUMOR

HAD NO FEAR.

He Knew His Man and Was Sure the Secret Was Safe.

Geraldine Montague was a decided blonde. Ripe and graceful as a gazelle, fair as a lily. Her lover was tall, dark and handsome.

It was a dreamy afternoon in June when they left the farmhouse where they were staying to stroll through sweet-scented fields. Emerging from a field dotted with daisies, they paused near a cliff overlooking the sea. As she clung tenderly to him their figures appeared like delicately carved cameoes against the clear azure sky.

"Darling!" he whispered.

"My love!" she murmured.

There, high above the moaning wave, they lingered until the blazing orb of day cast a glow over the western hills. They were happy—supremely happy, for that day they had plighted troth.

When the lovers returned to the farmhouse, they separated. Geraldine sought her father's apartment and with face radiant with joy told him of her conquest.

"My little treasure, you have my blessing!" said the venerable father to the confiding child.

"But, papa," she exclaimed, as her face suddenly clouded, "I fear he may discover our secret; that you are not a retired banker, but only a retired policeman on half pay."

"Pshaw! Fear not, my daughter," said the sage and knowing parent. "He'll discover nothing. Did you not tell me that he is the chief of a detective bureau?"—Up to Date.

Those Trusts.

City Man—What's the matter, my friend?

Mr. Hayseed—I'm mad as a hornet 'bout the way the things is goin—trusts an combines an monopolies everywhere. I just had to pay a cent more for a ball of string, and they told me it was 'cause of the Twine trust.

City Man—Well, it is a shame the way these combines force things up, raising the price of everything—wheat, corn, potatoes, butter, apples!

Mr. Hayseed—Eh? Do trusts raise the price of farm produce? Oh, well, methy they ain't such bad things after all.—New York Weekly.

Generous.

Countryman (to dentist)—I wouldn't pay nothing for extra gas. Just yank her out if it does hurt.

Dentist—You are plucky, sir. Let me see the tooth.

Countryman—Oh, "tain't me that's got the toothache. It's my wife. She'll be here in a minute.—Everywhere.

Deceptive Appearances.

"Appearances are so deceptive, unless one knows how to interpret them."

"How, dear?"

"I can always tell when my husband is going to be near with his money when I ask him for some by his assuming a faraway look."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Mingle folly with your wisdom, or nobody will associate with you.

Elderberry Pie.

Elderberry pie may be made so that they are hardly distinguishable from blueberry. The following is excellent recipe:

Scald the berries thoroughly, turn off the water. To one heaping teaspoonful of fruit add one teaspoonful of granulated sugar, butter the size of a walnut, a tablespoonful of vinegar (or lemon juice) and one egg. Bake with two crusts.

These pies may be made in the winter with canned elderberries which are put up by first scalding the berries, turning off the water, adding more water and heating ready for the cans. No sugar is required.—Josephine Detmar in Good Housekeeping.

Not In His Line.

"No," said the retired pugilist, sitting down ponderously and sighing heavily, "I'm too fat to ever fight again. Bill Shafter put up a good scrap at 800, but it is beyond me."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Cash For Antiques.

"Sagasta wants us to pay for the forts and Morros we captured."

"Say, he'd be glad to have us come over to Spain and capture a lot more under the same arrangement."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Not Is His Line.

"No," said the retired pugilist, sitting down ponderously and sighing heavily, "I'm too fat to ever fight again. Bill Shafter put up a good scrap at 800, but it is beyond me."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Baddeck, June 11, 1897.

C. C. Richards & Co.

Dear Sirs,—Minard's Liniment is my remedy for NEURALGIA.

It relieves at once.

A. S. McDONALD.

Paper made from seaweed is a growing industry in France. It is so transparent that it has been used in place of glass.

Minard's Liniment the best hair restorer.

When a girl's clever tongue keeps her from marrying it is because she has not met her equal among men.

Minard's Liniment for Rheumatism.

Originally consists mainly in not saying the things which everybody else says.

Minard's Liniment is the best.

As we must account for every idle word, so we must for every idle silence.—Franklin.

Minard's Liniment Cures LaGrippe.

Every unkind treatment to the cow poisons the milk—even talking unkindly to her.

Your Neighbor's Umbrella.

What ought to be done, ought to be done. He who borrows an umbrella ought to return it because it is borrowed. Umbrellas are for many days, and the borrower ought to be willing to carry an umbrella on a fair day in order to get it returned to its owner in time for him to use it on the next rainy day. So long as he is in debt and could pay the debt by dispensing with a little vanity or by a little exertion and yet does not discharge his debt he is not strictly honorable. The umbrella is not "only an umbrella," it is a point in morals.

Many a man has started upward or downward in life from the day he struck an attitude toward his neighbor's umbrella.—Sunday School Times.

JUST A BAD COLD.

A sharp stinging pain in the back—you think it doesn't amount to anything—but all right in a few days—but it doesn't get all right—kidneys are not doing their duty, and the poisonous matter that they ought to remove is going all through the system—causing rheumatism, gout, dyspepsia, headaches, backaches—all sorts of ills.

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

Cure the disease by removing the cause.

W. D. Popham, Talbot St., St. Thomas, Ont., says: "I have found that I had serious back and kidney trouble. My back was so stiff and painful that when I sat down I had to have someone to assist me to get up. I had to give up football, baseball, golf, tennis, etc. Doans Kidney Pills, and they have taken the stiffness and pain from my back and enabled me to straighten up without pain or difficulty."

Price six, a box, $1.25, druggists. The Dean Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.

First Rate Excuse.

Manager—The parachute man says he isn't going up in such an awful downpour of rain as this, but the people are all waiting. What excuse shall I make?

Proprietor—Oh, say that in consequence of the number of umbrellas going up there's no room for the balloon.—Alley Sloper.

A Prouder Record.

Norah (reading)—In England servants are proud of growing gray in their service of wan family.

Bridget—Huh! That's joost like thim Sassenach! What's they tink o' th' loikes o' me what's made more'n a hoendered mistresses grow gray in th' same toime?—Town Topics.

The United States does not wish Aquinaldo ill, but it would enter no objections if some one introduced him to the Empress Dowager of China.—Kansas City World.

"Strong scene," said the playwright to the inquiring manager, "I should smile! Why, the characters go through a regular course dinner, including grouse and limburger cheese! Strong! Well, say!"

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY.

Take Laxative Branno Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure 'em.

Every woman is as old as the neighbors remember she is.

A Distinction.

"Isn't that new neighbor of yours rather eccentric?" inquired the commercial traveler.

"No," answered one of the village's prominent citizens. "He ain't rich enough to be called 'eccentric.' He's just a plain crank."—Washington Star.

Cash For Antiques.

"Sagasta wants us to pay for the forts and Morros we captured."

"Say, he'd be glad to have us come over to Spain and capture a lot more under the same arrangement."—Cleveland Enquirer.

IF NOT SATISFIED, MONEY REFUNDED.

WHEN GETTING A COOK STOVE

Buy a "GRAND JEWEL."

and you will be delighted with the results.

IF NOT SATISFIED, MONEY REFUNDED.

W. G. FONSECA,

All teas are alike to the teapot. The first difference you will notice between Monsoon Indo-Ceylon Tea and any other you have been using is the riper flavor and the clearer, richer brown of the drawing in the cup. In the first sip of Monsoon Tea you will discover its matchless quality—and you will know "it's the best."

BABY'S OWN SOAP

I Must have the genuine, The imitations look very nice, but they hurt my delicate SKIN.
THE ALBERT TOILET SOAP CO.

25 per Cent. off Duty on British Goods

We get it but we don't keep it. Our customers profit.

They also reap the benefit of big cuts from manufacturers. See samples and be convinced.

MYRON M'BRIDE & CO.
WHOLESALE MEN'S FURNISHERS

WINNIPEG.

BOVRIL LIMITED
MANUFACTURERS OF
BOVRIL In Tins and Bottles

JOHNSTON'S FLUID BEEF,
Dessicated and Dried Potatoes and other Vegetables.

SOUP NODULES

And other preparations of condensed food specially suited for prospectors, surveyors and explorers, and for

KLONDIKE OUTFITS

LONDON, ENGLAND, and 27 St. Peter St., MONTREAL.

ATTENTION
Difference between Paper and Wool
Drawing: Paper is brittle, becomes brittle. The Wool is elastic and tough. Has never been known to crack; 8 years has established its reliability—wind and water proof.

Write for our Price List.

W. G. FONSECA,
705 Main St., Winnipeg.

W. R. ALLAN,
General Agent,
WINNIPEG.

W. N. U. 192
HAVE YOUR FALL STOCK WELL ASSORTED WITH

THE TIMES

Published Every Friday.

Grayson Block, Main Street,
Moose Jaw, N. W. T.

THE TIMES PRINTING CO.

Thos. Miller, Manager.

SUBSCRIPTION, $1.50 per year.

[Schedule of Advertising Rates on Application.]

ADVERTISEMENTS OF WANTS, TO LET, ETC., FOUND, ETC., WHEN UNDER 1 INCH, WILL BE INSERTED FOR 50c.; SUBSEQUENT INCREASES 25c. EACH. ALL OTHER ADVERTISEMENTS, SUCH AS BY-LAWS, MORTGAGES AND SHORT SALES, ASSIGNMENTS, AND ALSO GOVERNMENT AND CORPORATION NOTICES, INSERTED ONCE FOR 12c PER LINE; SUBSEQUENT INSERTIONS 2c.—SOLID NONPARAFFIN MEASUREMENT.

JOB PRINTING

Our job department is equipped with every appliance necessary for turning out first-class work at shortest notice. Prices moderate.

The Moose Jaw Times.

"And what is writ, is writ.—Would it were wortlier!" —Byron.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1898.

IT'S NOT DEAD YET.

AN INFLUENTIAL DEPUTATION AT OTTAWA.

Representative Temperance People of the Dominion Present Their Side of the Case to the Dominion Government —The Premier's Reply.

Ottawa, Nov. 3.—An influential and representative deputation waited upon a committee of the Privy Council, composed of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Sir Richard Cartwright and Messrs. Fisher, Fielding and Sifton, this afternoon and based a request upon the result of the plebiscite for the introduction at the next session of Parliament of a bill providing for the prohibition of the liquor traffic. The deputation spoke for the Dominion Alliance including its branches in the provinces of Canada, the Methodist, Congregational, Presbyterian and Baptist churches, the Women's Christian Temperance Union, Sons of Temperance, and Royal Templars of Temperance.

The case of the prohibitionists was ably put by Rev. Dr. Carman, who also introduced the other speakers, F. S. Spence, Toronto secretary of the Dominion Alliance; Major Bond, of Montreal, who spoke for Quebec; Dr. McLeod, for New Brunswick; F. McClure, M.P., for Nova Scotia; Rev. Joseph Hogg, for Manitoba; Mr. Rutherford, Toronto, president of the Dominion W.C.T.U., and D.J.O'Donoghue, of Toronto, labor leader.

Mr. Spence expressed the gratitude and thankfulness of prohibitionists for the straightforward, honorable way in which the Government had dealt with the question. He claimed that the vote which had been polled was a remarkably large one to be taken on an abstract question. He summed up the result in this way. There was a majority for prohibition of 13,884; 124 out of 205 constituencies, representing 128 members out of 213, were for prohibition. There was a majority of 43 members representing constituencies in favor of prohibition. Taking the prohibition majorities alone in these constituencies and adding them together it gave them over 125,000 majority to divide between their 128 representatives. Every member of Parliament who represented a constituency that had polled in favor of prohibition represented a constituency that had voted for prohibition by an average of over 1000 majority. Outside of Quebec there were only 24 constituencies, represented by 28 members, that had not given substantial prohibition majorities. He declared that it was the kind of vote upon which legislation might fairly be based with a certainty of its being made effective and being loyally obeyed. He recognized the difficulties in the way of prohibition, but he conceded the ability of the Government to deal with them.

Rev. Joseph Hogg spoke effectively as a member of the provincial plebiscite executive of Manitoba, and the Manitoba branch of the Dominion Alliance, from both of which he presented resolutions calling upon the Government to introduce a prohibition bill at the next session of Parliament. One of the resolutions contained the term "decisive majority," employing what Mr. Hogg described as a wisely guarded phrase credited to Sir Wilfrid Laurier who had been reported to have declared that if there was a decisive majority in favor of prohibition the Government would enact such a law. "We believe in Manitoba," said Mr. Hogg, "and in the North West Territories that a decisive majority has been given." He said the vote in Manitoba had been taken on lists five years old, upon which twenty-five per cent. of the names were unavailable, and polling day was fixed at a time when farmers could not leave their work without risk of loss. Yet the majority in favor of prohibition was considerably larger than in 1882 in the provincial plebiscite. Then the majority was 7,115. On September 29 the majority was 9,237. He believed that the responsibility of establishing prohibition in Canada had been wisely and nobly assumed by the Government. The temperance people, he said, had not placed this responsibility on the Government, but the Liberal party and the Government had assumed it and believed they would carry it to a successful issue.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in reply, expressed the Government's appreciation of the motive which had brought the delegation to Ottawa, and which had impelled the citizens who had taken an active part in the plebiscite campaign. He agreed with Mr. Spence that the vote was pure, clear and disinterested, and acknowledged that those who advocated prohibition had nothing else in view than the welfare of the country. He alluded to the circumstances under which the plebiscite plank had been inserted in the Liberal platform. There were members of the Liberal party who advocated the insertion of the prohibition plank in the platform. He admitted frankly that he was not a total abstainer, and added: "I have no hesitation in saying that if I could be satisfied that it could be shown that there was a broad, national sentiment in favor of such a cause, which is in itself a good and moral cause, I should have no hesitation in sacrificing my personal view, my education and inclination, and submitting to the will of the majority." He acknowledged that the prohibitionists had not asked for the plebiscite, but it was considered well in view of the Liberal party to have a free expression of opinion on the question and the plebiscite had resulted in a majority of the recorded vote for prohibition, and he agreed the vote was, under the circumstances, a large one. Commenting on the proposition that that vote warrants legislation, Sir Wilfrid Laurier said: "That is a question as to which you have endeavored to impress the Government, and the views which have been expressed in regard to it will be reported to Council. He said the vote in Quebec must not stand alone but must be considered along with the vote of every other province. He promised to communicate the decision of the Government to the secretary of the Dominion Alliance at an early date.

The dyspeptic carries a dreadful load on his back. It seems as if he were really made up of two men. One of them ambitious, brainy and energetic; the other sick, listless, peevish and without force. The weak man weighs the other down. The dyspeptic may be able to do pretty good work one day, and the next because of some little indiscretion in eating, he may be able to do nothing at all. Most cases of dyspepsia start with constipation. Constipation is the cause of nine-tenths of all human sickness. Some of its symptoms are sick and bilious headache, dizziness, sour stomach, loss of appetite, foul breath, windy belching, heartburn, pain and distress after eating. All these are indicative of derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels, and all are caused by constipation. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the quickest, easiest and most certain cure for this condition. They are not violent in action.

Spend 31 cents in one cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 1008 page COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, illustrated.

Messrs. Wilcox, Chapin and Bird, three prominent business men of Virden, Man., returned home last week from a goose shooting expedition to Buffalo Lake. They made a good bag.

HEART STAGGERS.

Here's Confession of Intense Heart Staggering and Weakness That made Life One Long Dreadful Nightmare—Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart was the Saving Agent.

Mr. Thomas Cooke, 230 Johnston st., Kingston, writes of himself and how Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart helped him: "I have used in all six bottles of this great heart remedy and it has completely cured me of heart weakness, from which I suffered severely for years. Prior to using it the slightest exertion or excitement would produce severe palpitation and nervous depression. To-day I am as strong as ever, and without one symptom of heart disease. Sold by Moose Jaw Drug and Stationery Store."

Estevan.

Estevan, Nov. 3.—It is our sad duty this week to chronicle the serious illness of Mr. M. Carroll. Mr. Carroll has been ailing for over a month, but last week his ailment became suddenly worse, and he now lies in a critical condition. As he lives all alone about two miles out here as soon as possible.—Political affairs are waxing warm and the "ward leaders" are hard at work. The candidates addressed a mass meeting of the electors in the school house a few nights ago, and their addresses were very much admired. Mr. Connell spoke of Mr. Young's speech as "a speech chock full of peanut ideas" and ridiculed his "pump business," but nevertheless, Mr. Young made a very favorable impression and will secure a goodly number of votes in this locality. Mr. J. A. Valens left for Brandon on Friday where he intends taking a course of study at Brandon college. Mr. Valens has hosts of friends here.—Mr. W. Horn, station foreman, who had the misfortune to have his foot badly crushed a few weeks ago at Weyburn, is able to be around again and is on duty working as hard as usual.

Persistent Coughs

A cough which seems to hang on spite of all the remedies which you have applied certainly needs energetic and sensible treatment. For twenty-five years that standard preparation of cod-liver oil, has proved its effectiveness in curing the trying afflictions of the throat and lungs, and this is the reason why the cod-liver oil, partially digested, strengthens and vitalizes the whole system; the hypophosphites act as a tonic to the mind and nerves, and the glycerine soothes and heals the irritation. Can you think of any combination so effective as this?

SCOTT'S EMULSION

Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion. See that the man and fish are on the wrapper.

50c and $1.00, all druggists.

SCOTT & BOWNS, Chemists, Toronto.

THIS IS THE SEASON.

FOR

Gloves, Mitts & Clothing, Over-Coats, All Wool Blankets, Rubbers, Overshoes.

Souris Flour.....
Car Green Apples Coming.

R. BOGUE.

A SERIOUS GRIEVANCE.

The Aldermen Take Action Regarding the Coal Scarcity in Moose Jaw.

The regular meeting of the town Council was held in the clerk's office Monday evening. Mayor Bogue occupied the chair, and Councillors Healey and Hanlan were the only absentees.

A large batch of accounts were received as follows: W. W. Cole, for Geo. Griffiths, $5.75; Jno. Riddell, sundries, $43.30; G. B. Sharpe, money paid for testing scales, $3.00; R. Bogue, money advanced to send Jas. Murphy to Regina, on conviction by W. C. Sanders, J.P., $5.50; R. Snodle, repairing scales $1.00, and building culvert, $61.00; W. D. Fletcher, work on grader and sundries, $44.80; H. Battell, salary as inspector, one month and five days, $43.15; G. B. Sharpe, on salary, $50.00; Wm. Grayson, professional services re application to annual portion of townsite, $31.30; E. A. Baker & Co., coal, $6.50. The above accounts were all ordered to be paid.

The Board of Works reported under date of Oct. 24th that the culvert crossing Main Street on south side of Manitoba Street has been completed; that gravel had been placed at the various crossings in town, and that on account of being unable to obtain the use of a Government road-trader they were unable to do the ditching as directed by Council, and further that the town scales had been inspected and certificate granted showing the scales to be in good order. Under date of Nov. 1st, the Board of Works reported that grading of the following streets had been completed: Stadcona on north side, Fairfield from Main to school grounds, and Manitoba west two blocks from Main, and that simple plank crossings are being put over the ditches at the various places where required. Both reports were adopted.

J. H. Kern was granted permission to drain his cellar and overflow of rain water into catch basin on Main street. When Baby Had Seized Head—When Mother Had Salt Rheum—When Father Had Piles.

The Board of Works reported under date of Oct. 24th that the culvert crossing Main Street on south side of Manitoba Street has been completed; that gravel had been placed at the various crossings in town, and that on account of being unable to obtain the use of a Government road-trader they were unable to do the ditching as directed by Council, and further that the town scales had been inspected and certificate granted showing the scales to be in good order. Under date of Nov. 1st, the Board of Works reported that grading of the following streets had been completed: Stadcona on north side, Fairfield from Main to school grounds, and Manitoba west two blocks from Main, and that simple plank crossings are being put over the ditches at the various places where required. Both reports were adopted.

J. H. Kern was granted permission to drain his cellar and overflow of rain water into catch basin on Main street.

A gentleman who is much interested in the raising of hogs and is becoming well known by the introduction of an excellent variety among the farmers of the North-West, is said to have received a letter a while ago that looks so many ways that he does not know whether to be pleased with it or not. It began: "My dear Sir: I wait yesterday to the fair at A——— I found several pigs of your species. There was a larger variety than usual and I was surprised at not seeing you there." —Ex.

The new Bakery has opened and is now ready for business, with a full supply of everything in our line. We have just built a first-class oven and are in a position to guarantee satisfaction. All we ask is a trial. Soliciting a share of your patronage. We remain, yours truly

SNODIE & WHITE, Bread on sale at J. J. & A. McLean's.

Ready for Business . . .

The best equipped shop in this line of business in the Dominion; noted for the superiority of their workmanship and beauty of their designs in Granite and Marble Monuments, Headstones, Mantle Pieces, Cemetery Fencing, Tablets, etc. Their native Granite curling stones and turned columns have received special mention and diploma at Winnipeg Industrial Fair.

BRANDON MARBLE & GRANITE WORKS

Sommerville & Co., Proprietors.

Rosser Ave., Brandon.

House Cleaning

time is here and if you require any . . .

KALSONMING, PAPER HANGING OR PAINTING

For anything in this line, you should consult the undersigned who make it their business and are now prepared to give attention to all work entrusted to them. Good workmanship at moderate charges.

Jas. Sanders.

PAINTERS AND PAPER HANGERS.

McDonald & Riddell.

LIVERY, FEED & SALE .. STABLES ..

First class rigs and good driving horses to hire on reasonable terms. Draying done to all parts of the town. Best accommodation for the general public.

McDonald & Riddell.

High St., Moose Jaw.

WAGHORN'S GUIDE TO TRAVEL AND BUSINESS 50c

Storm Windows AND DOORS.

Under this head Business Cards not exceeding one inch, ten dollars per annum.

W. M. GRAYSON, Barrister, Advocate, Conveyancer, Notary Public, Etc. Office Main St., Moose Jaw, N. W. T. Agent for the Canada Northwest Land Company, Limited, and the Trustees of Moose Jaw Town Site.

W. B. WILLOUGHBY, B.A. L.L.B., Barrister, Solicitor, Advocate, &c. Solicitor for Union Bank of Canada. Bellamy Block, Moose Jaw Assn.

T. C. JOHNSTONE, Barrister, Solicitor, Advocate, &c. Office: Cor. South Ry. & Rose Sts., Regina.

TURNBULL & McCULLOCH. Office in Boile's block, cor. Main and River streets.

A. R. Turnbull, M.D., C.M. J. W. McCulloch, M.D. S. W. RADCLIFFE, M.D., Physician and Surgeon. Office at Colling's Drug Store, Main Street.

D. R. P. F. SIZE, L.D.S., M.R.C.D.S. SURGEON DENTIST Moose Jaw, Assn. Office: Bellamy's Block. Office open from 2nd to 12th each month.

H. McDougall, Registrar, Moose Jaw and Deaths.

W. C. LUSK, PHOTOGRAPHER. Open each month from 25th to 31st. Newest and Best Styles of Work.

O. B. FYSH, Auctioneer and Valuator. Manitoba Street, Moose Jaw, Assn.

SKIN-DEEP BEAUTY!

Dr AGNEW'S OINTMENT BEAUTIFIES THE SKIN

balm; one application gives comfort and relief in an instant, and in from three to five nights the trouble disappears. Price, 35cts.

A London lady had eczema for years to badly, her face and neck were so disfigured she pain of it was so intense that, to use her own words, she "went next thing to mad." She tried many ointments, salves and washes, was treated by many physicians, skin specialists, without any lasting benefit. She bought a box of Dr. AGNEW'S OINTMENT—one application gave her comfort, and to-day, after using three boxes her skin is as clear and pink as a baby's.

DR. AGNEW'S CURE FOR THE HEART—

DR. AGNEW'S CATARRHAL POWDER—Relieves cold in the head in 10 minutes. Cures hay fever and catarrh.

DR. AGNEW'S LIVER PILLS—Regulate the bowels. Tone the system. Never gripe. Pleasant little doses. 40 in 5 vials; 20 ct.

SOLD BY W. W. BOLE

Relieves smothering, palpitation and fluttering. A regular life-saver in cases of organic heart trouble.

Bankers and Financial Agents.

Moose Jaw, Assiniboina.

Five per cent. interest allowed on Deposit accounts.

Current accounts conducted on favorable terms.

Collections solicited. Prompt returns.

Drafts and Cheques bought and sold.

Correspondents:—Bank of Montreal.

Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion. See that the man and fish are on the wrapper.

SCOTT & BOWNS, Chemists, Toronto.

Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion. See that the man and fish are on the wrapper.

SCOTT & BOWNS, Chemists, Toronto.

Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion. See that the man and fish are on the wrapper.

SCOTT & BOWNS, Chemists, Toronto.

Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion. See that the man and fish are on the wrapper.

SCOTT & BOWNS, Chemists, Toronto.

Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion. See that the man and fish are on the wrapper.

SCOTT & BOWNS, Chemists, Toronto.

Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion. See that the man and fish are on the wrapper.

SCOTT & BOWNS, Chemists, Toronto.

Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion. See that the man and fish are on the wrapper.

SCOTT & BOWNS, Chemists, Toronto.

Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion. See that the man and fish are on the wrapper.

SCOTT & BOWNS, Chemists, Toronto.

Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion. See that the man and fish are on the wrapper.

SCOTT & BOWNS, Chemists, Toronto.

Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion. See that the man and fish are on the wrapper.

SCOTT & BOWNS, Chemists, Toronto.

Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion. See that the man and fish are on the wrapper.

SCOTT & BOWNS, Chemists, Toronto.

Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion. See that the man and fish are on the wrapper.

SCOTT & BOWNS, Chemists, Toronto.

Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion. See that the man and fish are on the wrapper.

SCOTT & BOWNS, Chemists, Toronto.

Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion. See that the man and fish are on the wrapper.

SCOTT & BOWNS, Chemists, Toronto.

Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion. See that the man and fish are on the wrapper.

SCOTT & BOWNS, Chemists, Toronto.

Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion. See that the man and fish are on the wrapper.

SCOTT & BOWNS, Chemists, Toronto.

Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion. See that the man and fish are on the wrapper.

SCOTT & BOWNS, Chemists, Toronto.

Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion. See that the man and fish are

We Like the Men

To send us their watches for repairs. They appreciate first class workmanship and the very moderate prices we charge. We give special attention to repairing fine watches—the kind that need extra careful adjustment. We want you to feel when you send the watch to us the work will be done right. When we return it you will be tickled with its time keeping qualities. A post card will bring you a mailing box, if you haven't one. We give a guarantee with our work that guarantees.

lemen who are "ashamed to call themselves Canadians," who, "have witnessed such awful scenes of debauchery, &c., that they are convinced, 'it is worse than the mind of any honest man can conceive,' and so forth, these Opposition journals have had no room to mention the fact that, so far, Administrator Ogilvie has been unable to start the investigation for want of one line of definite charge upon which to work."

Nor have they referred to the other fact that Mr. Lester Haworth of the "Yukon Midnight Sun," published at Dawson City, which has been credited with some of the most sensational and condemnationary stories, not only denies that there is any corruption among the officials, but adds that, as a newspaper man he made it his special business to trace up charges that had been floating around the streets in Dawson City, and in every case when investigated the charge proved to be without foundation. Of the Gold Commissioner's office where so much corruption is charged Mr. Haworth says: "Mr. Fawcett's belief is as honest as the day-light, and in the whole course of inquiries into stories of this sort, I find none that gave evidence of corruption or improper officials. It could be proved that Mr. Fawcett gave 'B' a change by his decision that should belong to 'A,' all this talk would be justified, but not one case has been found, and I don't believe it ever will be."

THE POST OFFICE TOO.

Of the Post Office Department, the other branch of the public service that has been so animadverted upon, the same clean cut denials are given of any wrongdoing or corruption on the part of the officials. Of the fair correspondent of the London Times, Mr. Haworth remarks: "I was rather surprised when I came east to notice the influence of Miss Flora Shaw's report. She was there but a few weeks, she is a pretty smart woman, but she was too much carried away by loose street talk." A more exact description of the impression produced by a careful reading of Miss Shaw's letters it would be difficult to find.

A SIGNIFICANT STATEMENT.

In connection with the series of farewells to the Governor General which has been occupying this part of the country for the past couple of weeks the remarks of Lieutenant Governor Patterson who responded to the toast of the Governor General at the Bankers' banquet in Toronto were opportune and worth repeating. Having borne testimony to Lord Aberdeen's high sense of honor, his equally high sense of duty and the loyalty he showed his Ministers so long as they had the support of the people, he continued: "There are little secrets known only to the advisers of the Crown, the Colonial Secretary, and the Premier of Great Britain, which if known to all, Lord Aberdeen would not have been blamed as he has in certain quarters; he has maintained a dignified silence under criticism which possibly he might not have remained under had the seal of silence been taken from his lips; he has been a good constitutional ruler, and the people will part from him and from Lady Aberdeen with regret."

When it is remembered that the speaker was a colleague of Sir Charles Tupper, in various Conservative ministries up to the time of his appointment to the Governorship of Manitoba, it will be at once apparent that he knew exactly whereof he spoke, and must have been particularly impressed with the necessity of speaking before he would refer to the matter at all.

SHOULD BE SATISFIED NOW.

As has been observed before in these letters the honored leader of the Provincial Opposition and his supporters should be the happiest among men, for their two great troubles, that were making life burdensome to them have been entirely removed. They feared that injustice had been done when the Constables were allowed to vote at the Provincial elections, but the full bench of judges in the Court of Appeal has said with absolute unanimity and remarkable emphasis that there was no ground for this fear. Then they were temporarily perturbed because two Ministers were temporarily without seats, and neither British nor Canadian, either consideration could induce them to wait patiently for election protests to be dealt with. Now these Ministers have been elected by big majorities and it is hoped the country has heard the last of the "pelegged" Government, whatever that may have meant. The peg can now be used by the Opposition as an additional nail in the coffin of their hopes of office, or as a peg wherein to hang their aspirations for another term of four years.

THE PLEBISCITE.

The full results of the Prohibition vote have been received, and they show that 278,403 votes were cast in favor of prohibition and 264,579 against, or a majority of the actual vote polled of 13,884 in favor of prohibition. Of the eight Provinces and Territories seven favored prohibition with majorities ranging from 98% in British Columbia to 39.22% in Ontario, or a total of 107,899, but Quebec alone polled up 94,015 against the proposed enactment leaving the favorable balance so small as to make the vote practically an even thing. By provinces the vote has shown that in Ontario only 22 per cent on the list supported prohibition; in Quebec only 8 per cent; in Nova Scotia, 34 per cent; in New Brunswick, 29 per cent; in Prince Edward Island, 37.4% per cent; in Manitoba, 25 per cent; in British Columbia, 16 per cent; and in the Territories, 27 per cent. Of the total 1,233,849 voters on the lists only 543,042 recorded their votes or less than 45 per cent, and the total in favor of Prohibition throughout the country was but 22% per cent of the total electorate.

PHILPOTT'S RELEASE.

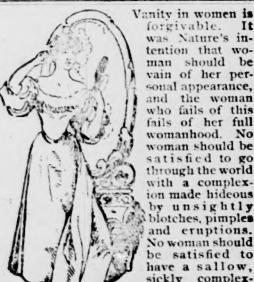

Sciatic Rheumatism a Double Compound in the Realm of Pain Torture, but South American Rheumatic Cure Drives it Out and Never Misses.

A few weeks ago while at a business trip to North Bay I was seized with a severe attack of sciatic rheumatism. Hearing of the wonderful cures effected by South American Rheumatic Cure, I procured a bottle and aside three days at the pain had left me, and when I had taken out the bottle I was completely cured. I think it the greatest of remedies, and shall be pleased to communicate with any person wishing more particulars of my case.—EDW. PHILPOTT, Cannington, Ont. Sold by Moose Jaw Drug and Stationery Store.

It is a druggist's business to give you, not tell you what you want.

"About four years ago," writes Thomas Harris, of Water Star, Sussex Co., Va., "my daughter Helen was ailing with sciatica, a distressing form. Dr. Pierce's medicines cured her after all other remedies had failed."

In sending for a free copy of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, enclose 31 one-cent stamps, to cover customs and mailing only, if a paper-covered copy is desired, or go stamps for cloth-bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Vanity in women is forgiveable. Nature's intention that woman should be vain of her personal appearance, and the woman of this race of her small womanhood. No woman should be satisfied to go through the world with a complexion made hideous by blotches, pimples and eruptions. No woman should be satisfied to have a sallow, sickly complexion.

The remedy for these conditions does not lie in cosmetics. Skin disease is caused by impurities in the blood, and by nervous disorders due to weakness and disease of the distinctly feminine organism. Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the greatest of all known medicines. It not only drives all impurities from the life stream, but fills it with the rich, life-giving elements of the food. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription acts directly on the delicate and important organs that bear the burdens of wifehood and motherhood. It makes them strong, well and vital.

A course of these great medicines will transform a weak, sick, nervous, despondent woman, who suffers from unsightly eruptions of the skin, into a healthy, happy, amiable companion, with a skin that is clear and wholesome. These medicines come from herbs and roots, and contain no mineral salts in their description. They simply assist the natural processes of assimilation, secretion and excretion. Medicine dealers sell them.

It is a druggist's business to give you, not tell you what you want.

"About four years ago," writes Thomas Harris, of Water Star, Sussex Co., Va., "my daughter Helen was ailing with sciatica, a distressing form. Dr. Pierce's medicines cured her after all other remedies had failed."

In sending for a free copy of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, enclose 31 one-cent stamps, to cover customs and mailing only, if a paper-covered copy is desired, or go stamps for cloth-bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

UNION BANK OF CANADA.

Capital Subscribed ... $1,500,000
Capital Paid Up ... 1,493,300
Rest ... 325,000

HEAD OFFICE, - - - QUEBEC.

Andrew Thomson, Esq., President.
Hon. E. J. Price, Vice-Pres.
E. E. Webb, General Manager.
J. G. Billett, Inspector.

BRANCHES.

Alexandria, Ont.	Morden, Man.
Boisevain, Man.	Meita, "
Carberry,	Moosomin, N.W.T.
Carmar,	Moose Jaw,
Calgary, N.W.T.	Norwood, Ont.
Deloraine, Man.	Neepawa, Man.
Glenboro,	Otawa, Ont.
Gretina,	Quebec, Que.
Holland,	Quebec, (S. Lewis S.
Hamatoa,	Smith's Fall's Ont.
Hastings, Ont.	Sherburne, Ont.
Indian Head, N.W.T.	Toronto, Ont.
Macleod,	Virden, Man.
Merrickville, Ont.	Watson, Ont.
Minnedosa, Man.	Winchester, Ont.
Montreal, Quebec.	Winnipeg, Man.

MOOSE JAW BRANCH.

Deposits received and general banking business transacted.
Interest allowed on saving and special deposits.

Drafts sold, available at all points in Canada, United States and England.

ROBT. S. BARROW, Manager

Something New...

The New Druggist with a New Stock of New Drugs is getting settled in his New Store in the New Grayson Block, and expects his New Stock of up-to-date Stationery to arrive in a few days.

We are here for your Accommodation.

E. L. COLLING.

Enlarging!

We have just enlarged our store, doubling its size. Our stock is now complete in every line. See our table ware, spoons, knives, forks—in this line we lead in assortment, in quality and in price, as also in watches, clocks and jewellery.

REPAIRING.

We repair watches, clocks and jewellery and make any kind of jewellery to order on shortest notice.

J. U. MUNNS.

SOLE AGENT FOR BELL ORGANS AND PIANOS AND SEWING MACHINES.

The Central Hall

LARGEST AND MOST COMMODIOUS IN MOOSE JAW.

Centrally Situated

Excellent stage and dressing rooms. Celebrated Bell piano for use of patrons.

TERMS STRICTLY CASH.

Robt. Snodie, Prop.

New Designs in Stamping Goods.

The Newest Thing Out—Cross Stitch on Canvas for Sofas, Pillows Table Covers, Etc., Etc.

Call and see them at...

THE BAZAAR

JNO. BRASS,
Tin & Sheet Iron Worker.

MAIN STREET, - - - MOOSE JAW

Crow's Nest Pass Coal.

The opening up of the Crow's Nest Pass district gives to the public a new fuel, which is already in great demand in the larger cities. The Crow's Nest coal has all the good qualities of both the Anthracite and Galt, while the disagreeable features are missing.

Our Trial Shipment Went Like Hot Cakes . . .

But we have just received another consignment. We solicit a trial order and feel confident that it will give entire satisfaction in regard to both price and heating qualities.

G. B. SHARPE.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that in accordance with the requirements of the Manitoba Irrigation Act the undersigned has filed his materials and plans required by Section II of the said Act with the Commissioner of Public Works at Regina.

The applicant applies for the right to impound sufficient water from a tributary of Moose Jaw creek on the S.E. quarter of Section II, Township 15, Range 25, west of the 2nd Meridian for irrigation stock watering purposes and for the right to construct the necessary works as shown by the plans and memorials filed, to enable the water so diverted to be used for the said purpose, and for the privilege of passing on the following lands, viz.: S.E. 1/4 Section II, Township 15, Range 25, west of the 2nd Meridian.

JOHN A. REID,
Clark of the Executive Council.
Dated at Regina, 25th October, 1898. 18-22

Sale of Lands in the Town of Moose Jaw for Appearance of Taxes.

Notice is hereby given that certain lands in the above-named town will be offered for sale for arrears of taxes on Tue-day, the 15th day of November, 1898, at 10 o'clock a.m., at the Town Hall, Moose Jaw, unless the arrears of taxes are paid.

A full list of the said lands may be found in The Moose Jaw Times of the following dates: Sept. 16, 23, 30 and Oct. 7, 1898.

Notice is given that the District of Assiniboin and North-West Territories is entitled to a portion of the proceeds of the sale of the above lands in lieu of the one thousand dollars stipulated in the Duplicate Certificate to be paid to the holder of the title to the lands in the District of Assiniboin and the North-West Territories of Canada, terms of 10% interest, for the period of five years.

Issued by the Land Titles Office for the Assiniboin Land Registration District at Regina this 19th day of October, 1898.

A. PRINCE, Deputy Registrar.

A. L. R. D.

MORTGAGE SALE OF VALUABLE Farm Property.

Pursuant to the order and direction of the Honorable Mr. Justice Richardson and under and by virtue of the powers contained in a certain registered mortgage, made in pursuance of the Title to Land Act, 1882, and amendments thereto, the same will be offered for sale by public auction by Oswald B. Fysh, auctioneer, at the Court House in the town of Moose Jaw, on Saturday, the 26th day of November, 1898, at 10 o'clock a.m., notice to the following persons:

The North-West Quarter of Section number Seventeen (17), Township number Seven (7) in the Rural Municipality of the North-West Territories of Canada. Terms will be made known at time of sale. For further particulars and conditions of sale apply to

WM. GRAYSON, Moose Jaw, N.W.T.

Dated at Moose Jaw, 21st October, 1898. 18-21

COAL

We have just received the first consignment of celebrated

Canadian Anthracite Coal.

We are prepared to supply the trade at the following prices

Furnace $9.00, - Half Ton $4.85

Stove ... 9.00, - " 4.85

Nut ... 8.00, - " 4.25

R. BEARD.

Houses for Sale.

OFFICIAL JNO. BRASS, WAGHORN'S GUIDE, 5¢

Shorey's Ready-to-Wear

Rigby Waterproofed Freize Ulsters

Made from pure wool, 32 oz. to the yard. Frieze. Five pockets—Deep flaps.—Six inch collar, with throat tab.—Double stitched edges—Raised seams. Length 54 inches. Nine colors. Black, Blue, Mid Brown, Drab, C'est, Heather, Oxford, Blue mixture and Olive mixture.

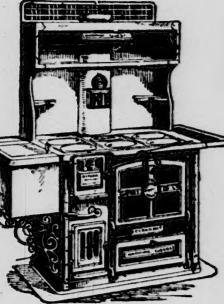

Waterproof, Windproof, Frostproof, Comfortable.

Sold by all reputable dealers from Nova Scotia to British Columbia for $6.75

Shorey's Guarantee Card in the pocket, of course. Insist on seeing it, it is a good square guarantee.

Sold only by M. J. MacLEOD.

Oxford Ranges

WHY THEY'RE BEST.

A combination of.....

Best Materials

Best Fitting

Best Workmanship

Make our Winter Overcoats . . .

THE BEST

If its Style, if its Quality, if its Price our stock will suit you—call and examine it.

W. N. Mitchell.

OCEAN STEAMSHIPS ROYAL MAIL LINES.

The Cheapest and Quickest ROUTE

To the —

OLD - COUNTRY !

SAILING DATES.

FROM ST. JOHN.
Parisian—Allan Line Dec. 7

FROM MONTREAL.
Laurentian—Allan Line Nov. 19

Labrador—Donation Line Nov. 26

Lake Superior—Beaver Line Nov. 16

Gallia—Beaver Line Nov. 23

FROM NEW YORK.
Majestic—White Star Line Nov. 16

Germanic—White Star Line Nov. 23

Umbria—Cunard Line Nov. 19

St. Louis—American Line Nov. 16

St. Paul—American Line Nov. 23

Friesland—Red Star Line Nov. 16

Kensington—Red Star Line Nov. 23

State of Nebraska—Allan Line Nov. 25

Cabin, $47.50, $50, $60, $70, $80 and upwards. Intermediate, $34 and upwards. Steerage, $24.50 and upwards.

Passengers ticketed through to all points in Great Britain and Ireland and at special rates to all parts of the European continent. Prepaid passage arranged from all points.

W. C. GOUDIE, Agent, Moose Jaw.

Or to WILLIAM STITT, General Agent, C.P.R. Office, Winnipeg.

THE PRESERVING SEASON

The preserving season has commenced. It will pay you to deal with the old reliable. As in former seasons our prices are the lowest in town. Leave your orders at once with J. A. Healey & Co., or at the Klondyke Supply Store.

Thomas Healey.

H. McDougall

Dealer in.....

Lumber and Building Material . . .

Moose Jaw 1st May, 1897.

ROOMS LIGHTED WITH ELECTRICITY.

First class Liquors and Cigars. Every convenience for the travelling public.

J. H. KERN, PROP.

Dealers in.....

Lumber and Building Material . . .

Moose Jaw 1st May, 1897.

BRITISH PREMIER.

KITCHENER ENTERTAINED AT THE MANSION HOUSE.

France Has Abandoned Fashoda—An Acute and Dangerous Crisis Passed.

London, Nov. 4.—The banquet given to General Kitchener at the Mansion house this evening was an exceptionally brilliant affair. A trophy of British and Egyptian flags entwined had been arranged above the Lord Mayor's seat. The guests, who were in full dress uniforms with ribbons and decorations, included the Duke of Cambridge, the Marquis of Salisbury and the other cabinet ministers, Lord Roberts of Kandahar, Lord Strathcona and Mount Royal, Sir William Vernon Harcourt, Lord Rosebery, Lord Wolseley, the commander in chief of the forces, Lord Russell of Killowen, the Lord Chief Justice of England, Lord Curzon of Kedleston, the newly appointed viceroy of India, Sir Joseph Lister, president of the Royal Society, the Duke of Marlborough, Mr. Henry White, the United States chargé d'affaires, Baron Rothschild, Judge Lamont Tree, formerly United States minister to Russia, and others of the highest rank in the British empire. In all there were about three hundred and fifty guests present.

The Lord Mayor received his guest in the grand saloon. General Kitchener was attired in the uniform of a major general of the British army with the rank of the Order of the Garter. He was greeted with tremendous cheers from the assembled guests. The banquet, appropriately, was served in the Egyptian hall of the Mansion house. General Kitchener sat on the right hand of the Lord Mayor and the Duke of Cambridge was seated on the Lord Mayor's left. After the dinner proper the Lady Mayoress and a number of other ladies were accommodated with seats in the gallery in order to enable them to hear the speeches. After the Lord Mayor had been circulated, the Lord Mayoress, the Queen, the Princesses of Wales and the Royal family, to which the Duke of Cambridge responded.

Lord Rosebery toasted the army and navy, paying a glowing tribute to Lord Kitchener and his gallant comrades, and to Lord Cromer and the Egyptian and Soudanese forces, "whose brilliant campaign just closed, is the most consummate in the annals of British military history for eighty years, and far more benevolent and extended in its results than, perhaps, any record in history." The campaign, said Lord Rosebery, had wiped out the "bloodiest and most barbarous tyranny in the history of mankind." He concluded by proposing that "a right to exist from the nations whose territory borders on the Persian territory, not ill-feeling and jealousy, but the fullest measure of gratitude."

Admiral Sir Nowell Salmon, first and principal aide de camp to the Queen, responded for the navy, and the secretary of state for war, Lord Lansdowne, for the army. There was a feeling of expectancy throughout the speeches, and everything that could be construed as an allusion to war was jumped at by the assembly with prolonged cheers. When Sir Nowell Salmon alluded to the "preparations of the navy," and Lord Lansdowne to the "readiness of the army," there were prolonged outbursts of applause.

The assembly greeted the rising of the Marquis of Salisbury to toast the Sirdar with nervous silence, as it had been whispered that he had an important and grave statement to make. His statement was important, but it was pacific as he announced a settlement of the chief difficulty with France. The premier said in part: "No one can wonder at the vast enthusiasm by which the career of this great soldier has been received, especially when we consider the strange and conditions amidst which his laurels were won by the Sirdar. Besides being a splendid soldier, he is also a splendid diplomatist. It must have unusual talents successfully to carry out the delicate mission up the Nile which conducted him into the presence of Major Marchand." The Sirdar has lately expressed the hope that the difficulties arising from the presence of Major Marchand may be within the power of diplomacy to adjust. I am glad to say that up to a certain point he has proved a true prophet."

"This afternoon I received from the French ambassador the information that the French government have come to the conclusion that the occupation of Fashoda is of no sort of value, ipso-geal laughter, and elation, and that they thought, in the circumstances that to persist in an occupation which would only cost them money and do harm, merely because some bad advisers thought it might be disagreeable to an unwelcome neighbor, would not show the wisdom with which, as I think, the French republic has been so firmly guided. They have done what I believe every government would have done in the same position—resolved that the occupation must cease (cheers). I must not be understood as saying that all causes of controversy are removed. That is not so. Doubtless there will be many discussions between us; but a somewhat acute and somewhat dangerous cause of difference has been removed."

KITCHENER'S REPLY.
General Kitchener's reply, which was modest and not important, gave unstinted praise to the British, Egyptian and Soudanese troops. The Sirdar said he would have been an incapable leader if he had failed of victory with such soldiers. He gave some details as to the expenses of the expedition, dwelling with pride upon its cheapness, and, in summing up the "assets that remain," referred to six hundred miles of railway, gunboats, a flotilla of sailing craft, and (after a pause), "the Sudan." (Laughter and applause.)

A striking feature of the scene was the presence of a number of young officers of the Guards, Life Guards and Twenty-first Lancers, who had served with the Sirdar. Several of them wounded and walked with crutches, or with their arms in slings.

FRANCE'S DECISION.

HISTORICAL CEREMONY.

Emperor William and Empress Augusta Victoria at Mount Zion.

Jerusalem, Nov. 1.—Emperor William has telegraphed to the Pope, saying: "I am happy to be able to inform your Holiness that, thanks to the benevolent intervention of his majesty the Sultan, who has not hesitated to give this proof of his personal friendship. I have been able to acquire at Jerusalem the abode of the Holy Virgin. I decided to place this ground, consecrated by so many pious memorials, at the disposal of my Catholic subjects. It rejoices my heart to be able to thus prove how dear to me are the religious interests of Catholics whom divine providence has placed in my care. I beg your Holiness to accept the assurance of my sincere attachment."

THE MORNING PAPERS.

London, Nov. 5.—The editorials in the morning papers express a natural jubilation over the settlement of the acute stage in the Fashoda dispute. They insist that it is hopeless for France to expect that her evacuation of Fashoda will give her any better pretensions to discuss or to attempt negotiations regarding any portion of the Nile Valley.

The Times, after pointing out the interesting fact that the United States charge d'affaires, Mr. Henry White, was the only foreign diplomat present at the banquet to Lord Kitchener, says: "In thus associating our American kinsfolk with our national rejoicings, we desire to show our warm appreciation of the sympathy with which General Kitchener's victory has been commented upon beyond the Atlantic."

The Daily Mail, in the course of an interesting interview between General Kitchener and Cecil Rhodes, and dwelling upon the "community of their ideas and methods," says: "As one followed Lord Kitchener, unfolding his balance sheet of the Soudan campaign in the Mansion House last evening, one might for all the world have been listening to Mr. Cecil Rhodes addressing a body of his shareholders at the Cannon Street hotel.

HE WAS JUST IN TIME.

General Wood Prevents Another Trans-port Horror.

Santiago de Cuba, Nov. 4.—The transport Victor was to have left yesterday for the United States with a number of sick officers and men. Just before the hour fixed for her departure, General Leonard Wood, military governor of the department of Santiago, went on board.

To his amazement he found no provisions specially suitable to sick persons, an entire lack of delicacies and an insufficiency of medical supplies.

General Wood had the ship supplied with Red Cross stores and she sailed in the afternoon.

General Wood declares that hereafter he will pay a personal visit to every transport before it leaves the harbor. He thinks it very strange that after all the experience had here in this line, the medical department is not able to manage its affairs better, and that the personal supervision of the commanding general should be necessary.

Major Starr, inspector general of the department, is on a furlough of thirty days.

General Wood is preparing a Thanksgiving proclamation, being of the opinion that the Cubans ought to give thanks for the blessings they have received. The Americans want to keep the day in old-fashioned style, and are writing to their friends in the north writing on turkeys.

The custom-house receipts at the ports in the military department of Santiago for the month of October aggregated nearly $100,000.

Troops For Cuba.

Washington, Nov. 4.—The war department has issued a general order for the movement to Cuba. The first troops will leave on or about November 22 and will comprise a brigade under Brig. Gen. Carpenter. The brigade will be taken from the 7th army corps and one of the regiments to go will be the Third Georgia. The brigade will be sent to Neiva, Puerto Principe.

Look before you leap; otherwise you won't recognize yourself afterward.

To Protect Commerce.

New York, Nov. 3.—At the regular monthly meeting of the chamber of commerce today Charles S. Smith, on behalf of the executive committee, presented a memorial signed by Chas. H. Butler for himself and others and addressed to the president of the United States urging him to convene an international congress at Washington to consider the question of making private property on the sea free from capture during war.

Dryden Elected.

Oshawa, Nov. 1.—Hon. John Dryden was to-day elected member for South Ontario, defeating Chas. Calder, Conservative. His majority, with two places to hear from, not likely to materially change the result, is 124. A public meeting was held in the town, at which enthusiastic speeches were made. Mr. Dryden himself being present, and heartily thanked the electors for the victory achieved. On the streets, too, the local Liberals manifested their enthusiasm by a big procession.

Mr. Dryden was defeated in March last by Mr. Calder by a majority of 96, and has been without a seat since, though remaining a member of the ministry. Hon. J. M. Gibson, the other minister defeated in March, was last week elected by East Wellington, so the government is again in its normal condition.

A curious present for a deaf person was the present of a number of young officers of the Guards, Life Guards and Twenty-first Lancers, who had served with the Sirdar. Several of them wounded and walked with crutches, or with their arms in slings.

There is more profit in smoking herring than cigarettes.

FASHODA QUESTION.

MORNING DISPATCHES SAY IT IS PRACTICALLY UNCHANGED.

The Town of Niu Chwang, Province of Leo Tung, Occupied by a Russian Regiment.

London, Nov. 3.—The situation regarding Fashoda is practically unchanged. Baron De Courcel, the French ambassador, who on Tuesday saw Sir Thomas Sanderson, permanent under secretary of State for foreign affairs, was absent from Lord Salisbury's reception yesterday.

The special dispatch from Paris this morning repeats the semi-official statement that the evacuation of Fashoda is accepted in principle, but that other points in the Bah-el-Ghazal region will be maintained.

Various rumors are afloat as to Abyssinian expeditions nearing the Nile to assist the French but nothing authentic is known on this point.

M. Delcasse, French minister of foreign affairs, is expected to announce his policy in the chamber of deputies tomorrow (Friday).

It is admitted on all sides that Fashoda itself offers no difficulty, provided a way can be found to save amour propre.

London, Nov. 3.—The Daily Mail announces the appointment as governor of Khartoum of Colonel Kitchener, a brother of the Sirdar, General Lord Kitchener.

Cairo, Nov. 3.—Major Marchand and two other Frenchmen, accompanied by Capt. Fitton, of the Egyptian army, are expected to arrive here tomorrow evening.

Wai Hia Wei, Nov. 2.—All the British warships here, the first class battleship Centurion, the first class cruiser Narcissus, the second class cruiser Hermoine, the torpedo boat destroyer Whiting, the torpedo boat destroyer Fame, the torpedo boat destroyer Handly and the first class gunboat Peacock, have cleared for action and are ready for sea in an hour's notice. The first class battleship Victorious and the first class cruiser Undaunted are at Chefoo, not far from here, and are coaling to their full capacity.

The greatest secrecy is maintained as to the meaning of these warlike preparations, but there is no doubt important instructions are expected at any moment. A large Russian fleet is assembling at Port Arthur.

London, Nov. 2.—The dispatch from Wei Hia Wei announcing the war preparations of the British naval authorities there is regarded as being of grave importance, coupling with the Anglo-French war preparations. It is surmised that Russia, profiting by the present strained relations between Great Britain and France, has decided to push forward her aims in the far east by forcibly seizing the valuable treaty port of Niu Chwang, which Great Britain cannot permit, it is said.

A dispatch from London to the Associated Press on October 20, said a cable message had been received there from Shanghai announcing the occupation of Niu Chwang, alias written Niu Chwang, by Russian troops. The dispatch was worded as follows: "A Russian regiment occupied the town of Niu Chwang—province of Leo Tung—and the forts at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Manchuria to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is sure to lose at the mouth of the river Liaon on October 15, thus securing complete possession of Niu Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang. A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole Man

JOHN ARTHUR'S WARD, ON THE DETECTIVE'S DAUGHTER

By the author of "A Woman's Crime," "The Missing Diamond," etc.

CHAPTER XIX.—A DUAL RENUNCIATION.

Madeline Parke had lingered over her toilet, pondering the incomprehensible manner of Claire Keith. She now stood before her mirror, brush in hand, thinking. "Not ready yet?"

If Madeline could believe her eyes, Claire was actually smiling!

"I thought you would be waiting for me," continued Claire, composedly, pulling a big chair forward, and sitting down where she could look full in Madeline's face. "But it is just as well; there is something that I want to say before we go down. Why don't you go on with your hair?"

Madeline's hand, brush and all, had dropped to her side, and she was silently staring at her friend. Without a word she resumed her employment looking more at Claire than at her own reflected image.

You guessed rightly, when you accused me of having seen Mr. Percy today," pursued Claire.

"Accused, Claire?"

"Well, informed, then. I did see him. He wrote me a letter; it was posted at Bellair, you see," smiling bitterly; "that I have no reason for doubting anything you have told me."

A new light broke over Madeline's face. "Do you doubt?" she asked quickly.

"Not one word!"

"I'm drawing a breath of relief."

"You were so composed I thought."

"That I was hoping to dispense your statements? Not at all. And why should I not be composed? Do you think my heart could break for such a man?"

"Hearts don't break so easily," said Madeline gloomily, "but they ache sometimes."

"Do they?" placing her hand over her heart and smiling faintly. "Well, mine don't ache either, yet; but it burns."

Madeline staved her brush again. "No," she murmured, "it don't ache yet."

Claire made a gesture of impatience. "Oh, I know what you mean, Madeline! By and by my heart will ache, of course—I know that, having discovered, quite recently, that I am human. One can't feel outraged and angry always, and sometimes, I suppose, my day-dreams will come back and haunt me. Well, that is a part of the price we have to pay for intruding into dreamland when we are not asleep. But this is not what I began to say. Edward Percy met me to-day, and this is what he told me. He said he was going away upon some geological expedition, and would most likely be gone a year. He wanted me to promise to hold myself free until he could return and then—. He would expect no other promise now, on his physician's behalf. At the end of a year, all obstacles to our open engagement would be removed. I, of course, supposed, then, that the 'obstacles' referred to, were business and financial ones. Don't think, Madeline, that we have been in the habit of meeting clandestinely. He visited me openly in Baltimore, but not often enough to excite remark; and we frequently met at other places, as he went in the best society here."

Claire paused, but Madeline went on with her toilet in grave silence.

"Madeline darling, I can't thank you enough for opening my eyes before it was too late, while it was no worse—and I can't explain my feelings. I despise him, and I despise myself for being thus duped. It is my pride that is suffering now, but, of course, I know that, despite the man as I may, my heart will be heavier and my life darker, because of what I believed him to be. Now let us go to Olive."

Madeline Payne threw her arms impulsively about her friend and murmured brokenly, "Claire, Claire! you are braver than I, and far, far more worthy. You have a right to be happy, and you do!"

And in that moment the girl renounced a resolve she had taken, and a hope she had cherished.

As they descended the stairs together Claire fancied that she looked paler, and a thought sadder than before.

They found Olive and Dennis waiting.

As they took their places about the luxur-laden board, three lovelier women or three sadder hearts could not have been found in a day's journey.

Of the three, Claire Keith was the only one who was really successful. All that was to be related by Madeline all that Olive was waiting in anxious expectation to hear, she knew already.

The best and the worst had been revealed to her; her own course was clear before her. So she ate her dinner with composure, and bore a large share in the table talk; that but for her, she would have been rather vague and spasmodic.

Dinner was an ordeal for Olive, at least, on that day, for her mind was filled with thoughts of Philip, and wonderments as to how the picture of the man who had been his ruin came into the possession of Madeline, who was making herself more and more of a mystery.

Madeline, too, was restless. She wished ed the revelation were made and done with. She wondered if she could control the future, so far as Olive was concerned, for she had made her plans, and did not propose to let the work be taken out of her hands.

When Madeline had related to Olive the events that had been transpiring at Oakley, she had narrated faithfully the scenes between Cora and Percy, but she had withheld the name of the latter, a fact which was not even noticed by Olive, who had not been especially interested in this last actor upon the scene.

Now, when dinner was over, and they had grouped themselves about the grate, its ruddy glow illuminating the twilight that was fast giving place to evening shadows, Madeline retold the story of Percy's first interview with Cora on his arrival, and his second, in the summer house, the overhearing of which had caused that long absence from Miss Arthur's dressing room, which necessitated her ingenious and highly improbable explanation to the aggrieved spinster, with which the reader is already acquainted.

During this recital the face of Olive Girard was a study. It changed from curiosity to wonder; from wonder to a dawning hopefulness of finding in all this a possible clue, that might help her husband to his freedom. Then despair took the place of hope, as the clue seemed to elude her grasp. At the end, astonishment and incredulity fairly took away her breath. She sank back in her chair without uttering a word.

Madeline waited for comments, but Claire was the first to speak. During the recital she had been able to think, and to some purpose. As the disjointed fragments were joined together by Madeline, Claire was drawing shrewd and close inferences. Now she lifted her head and said:

"Madeline, have you formed any sort of a theory, as to how all this might affect Olive and Philip?"

Madeline looked up in surprise at the question, and answered it by asking another: "Have you?"

"Yes, but I think Olive would rather hear yours; and mine is, as yet, but half formed."

Olive had regained a measure of her composure, and now she sat erect, and said eagerly:

"Madeline, I have been too much surprised, and shocked, to think clearly. Think of me, child, and for me, I am safe, I suppose, once all that you suspect."

"I suspect much," replied the girl, bravely; "but what we want is proof. First we want to find out who is the party who accompanied Madame Cora, or Alice, as Percy called her, to Europe for Olive's showman. Did she know Lucian Davlin ten years ago? Did they go together to Europe?"

"You want to know, first of all," said Claire, interrupting her, "when the intimacy of those two did begin. The woman may not have known him ten years ago. It would be easier to find out if they have been allies during the past five years."

Madeline turned a look of surprised admiration upon the speaker as she replied:

"You are right, Claire, and keener than I. Yet my theory is that they were friends before the woman fled from her cottage in the suburbs. I think the stealing of the marriage certificate has a strong savor of a man's thoughtful cunning. The woman could not have been so deep a schemer in those days. Now Olive, let us suppose that these two were plotting in union. Edward Percy's first wife died and no one the wiser about the marriage. Then he inherits his uncle's wealth. If Edward Percy were to die then the woman Cora could come forward as his widow, display the proofs of their marriage, and under her fortune. He seems to have no living relatives, but, even should other heirs appear, she would claim his widow's portion."

"Good heavens!" gasped Olive.

"Wait," pursued Madeline, "now, don't you see, supposing all the rest true, that if Lucian Davlin attempted the life of this man, with the view of getting his money, and if he failed in some manner unknown—don't you see that, holding Olive's head the fear of the law, and the proofs of his having committed bigamy, he might thus silence him? Then that the two disliking Philip Girard, and finding the opportunity to throw suspicion upon him by circumstantial evidence, would naturally do so."

Olive Girard was fearfully agitated, but, after a few moments, had in a measure recovered her self-possession. Then the three seemed seized with a desire to talk all at once. And talk they did—fast, earnestly, excitedly at times.

At last, out of many words, they evolved a plan of action, and, having arrived at a definite conclusion, they settled down into partial calm once more; a calm that was broken by a most agreeable ripple.

Doctor Clarence Vaughan was announced, and ushered into their presence, all in the same moment.

Doctor Vaughan was glad to see Madeline; that was evident. But while he examined her, his eyes wandered from her face to that of Claire Keith.

It was only a look, but Madeline Payne had exchanged all the smiles, hand clasps, and brotherly words she could ever hope to receive from him, for one such glance from his eyes. But the tender wistfulness was all for Claire, blind Claire, who saw nothing of it.

Madeline withdrew her hand from his clasp, uttering, as she did so, a dippant companion in response to his hearty greeting, but Claire had caught the look in his eyes, and the false gaiety in Madeline's voice, and it caused her to wonder.

Heretoforeshe had lived in a dream of her own, and had been careless of the varying expressions of those about her. Her dream had been dispelled, and she seemed now to have a keen eye for the emotion of others. Troubles of our own, sometimes open our eyes to the fact that our friends are not all supremely happy. Then we naturally fall to speculating as to the cause. This was the case with Claire. She speculated a little as to why one eye of Dr. Vaughan rested upon her, than that half-sad expression in them. Then she wondered why the spirit of perversity had possessed Madeline, and induced her to extend to Doctor Vaughan so shabby a welcome. Then, without realizing it, she was to receive the names of these two more closely.

"Well, Miss Payne, what report do you bring from the enemy's country?" he asked, after a few commonplaces between himself and the mistress of the house.

"I have not been in the enemy's country, Doctor Vaughan; the enemies are infesting mine."

"As you please, little warrior," smiled he. "Then may I ask, how goes the battle?"

"Oh, yes! you may ask," crossing over and seating herself beside Olive, "but your curiosity must wait. It's a ridiculous, tiresome story, and wouldn't amuse you much, or interest you, either. I am going to let Mrs. Girard inflict it upon you, when she thinks you need a penance."

"I think you need a penance now, Miss Payne, for accusing me of too much cruelty, and too little interest."

"Oh, I didn't mean that, exactly," shrugging her shoulders carelessly. "I suppose, of course, a physician is interested to a certain extent in all his subjects living or dead; but I can't let you dissect my mind to-night. Besides," laughing maliciously, "I know you would recommend leeches and blisters, and maybe a strait jacket, and I can't be stopped in my charming career just yet."

Claire Vaughan seemed not to be offended by the girl's cool insolence. He smiled indulgently, and when Olive ventured a gentle remonstrance, he murmured to Claire, with a half laugh: "Miss Madeline is incomprehensible to me; do you understand her, Miss Keith?"

And Claire, looking across at her friend, replied oddly: "I love her, Doctor Vaughan, and I begin to understand her, I think."

"Do you?" smiling down upon her.

"Then some day will you not interpret her to me?"

Claire's answer was again given oddly, as lifting her eyes to his face, she said, quite gravely: "If it is necessary to do so, perhaps I will."

Then conversation became general; either Dr. Vaughan talked, and they all listened.

Claire found herself thinking that Doctor Vaughan was a noble-looking man; not alluringly handsome, as was Edward Percy; nor possessing the magnetic fascination that Madeline had described as belonging to Lucian Davlin. But he had a fine face, nay, a grand face, full of strength and sweetness; not devoid of beauty, but having in it something infinitely better, truer, and more godlike than mere physical beauty can impart to any face.

Then she thought of Madeline, of her loneliness, her sorrow, and her need of just such a strong, gentle nature to lean upon, to look up to, and obey. "She would obey him," quoth Claire to herself.

Next she fell to watching Madeline, through half-closed eyelashes. She saw how she had listened to his every word; how, when his eyes were not upon her, she seemed to devour him with a hungry, longing, sorrowful gaze.

"As if she were taking leave of him forever," thought Claire.

And that is what Madeline was doing. When she came to the city, it was with the determination to win the love of this man; if it could be won; to let nothing stand between herself and the fulfillment of that purpose. But all this had been changed, and seeing how bravely Claire bore the shock of her lover's baseness, how proudly, how nobly, she commanded herself, Madeline had abandoned her purpose.

"I am not worthy of him, and she is," she told herself.

When she declared that Claire should be happy, she bade farewell to her own hopes of future happiness. She would help him to win the girl he loved, and then she would be content to die; ay, more than content.

To-night, therefore, she was saying in her heart a farewell to this man, who was so dear to her. She had almost hoped that she should not meet him again for the present, and yet she was so glad to have seen him once more. She was glad of his presence, yet fearful lest her good resolution might be shaken. She would not let him be too kind to her, rather let him think her ungrateful, anything what could it matter now?

"Shall you not come back to the city soon, Miss Payne? Surely your old home can not be the most charming place in your eyes," questioned Clarence, after a time.

"I don't intend returning to the city at least, not for some time, Doctor Vaughan."

Clarence looked perplexed.

To break the silence that ensued, Claire turned to the piano and began playing soft, dreamy fragments of music.

Presently Olive took up the corner-arm, and when Madeline again turned her face toward him, he was listening to Olive and looking at Claire. It was the same look, yearning, tender.

Claire, still unconscious of his gaze, was looking at Madeline, as she played softly on.

As Olive and Clarence talked, Claire saw the face of the girl grow dark; she saw her eyes full of a hungry, despairing light, and gradually there crept upon her a sense of fear, of pain, of mortification.

Presently Olive took up the corner-arm, and when Madeline again turned her face toward him, he was listening to Olive and looking at Claire. It was the same look, yearning, tender.

Claire looked perplexed.

To break the silence that ensued, Claire turned to the piano and began playing soft, dreamy fragments of music.

Presently Olive took up the corner-arm, and when Madeline again turned her face toward him, he was listening to Olive and looking at Claire. It was the same look, yearning, tender.

Claire, still unconscious of his gaze, was looking at Madeline, as she played softly on.

As Olive and Clarence talked, Claire saw the face of the girl grow dark; she saw her eyes full of a hungry, despairing light, and gradually there crept upon her a sense of fear, of pain, of mortification.

Presently Olive took up the corner-arm, and when Madeline again turned her face toward him, he was listening to Olive and looking at Claire. It was the same look, yearning, tender.

Claire looked perplexed.

To break the silence that ensued, Claire turned to the piano and began playing soft, dreamy fragments of music.

Presently Olive took up the corner-arm, and when Madeline again turned her face toward him, he was listening to Olive and looking at Claire. It was the same look, yearning, tender.

Claire, still unconscious of his gaze, was looking at Madeline, as she played softly on.

As Olive and Clarence talked, Claire saw the face of the girl grow dark; she saw her eyes full of a hungry, despairing light, and gradually there crept upon her a sense of fear, of pain, of mortification.

Presently Olive took up the corner-arm, and when Madeline again turned her face toward him, he was listening to Olive and looking at Claire. It was the same look, yearning, tender.

Claire looked perplexed.

To break the silence that ensued, Claire turned to the piano and began playing soft, dreamy fragments of music.

Presently Olive took up the corner-arm, and when Madeline again turned her face toward him, he was listening to Olive and looking at Claire. It was the same look, yearning, tender.

Claire, still unconscious of his gaze, was looking at Madeline, as she played softly on.

As Olive and Clarence talked, Claire saw the face of the girl grow dark; she saw her eyes full of a hungry, despairing light, and gradually there crept upon her a sense of fear, of pain, of mortification.

Presently Olive took up the corner-arm, and when Madeline again turned her face toward him, he was listening to Olive and looking at Claire. It was the same look, yearning, tender.

Claire, still unconscious of his gaze, was looking at Madeline, as she played softly on.

As Olive and Clarence talked, Claire saw the face of the girl grow dark; she saw her eyes full of a hungry, despairing light, and gradually there crept upon her a sense of fear, of pain, of mortification.

Presently Olive took up the corner-arm, and when Madeline again turned her face toward him, he was listening to Olive and looking at Claire. It was the same look, yearning, tender.

Claire, still unconscious of his gaze, was looking at Madeline, as she played softly on.

As Olive and Clarence talked, Claire saw the face of the girl grow dark; she saw her eyes full of a hungry, despairing light, and gradually there crept upon her a sense of fear, of pain, of mortification.

Presently Olive took up the corner-arm, and when Madeline again turned her face toward him, he was listening to Olive and looking at Claire. It was the same look, yearning, tender.

Claire, still unconscious of his gaze, was looking at Madeline, as she played softly on.

As Olive and Clarence talked, Claire saw the face of the girl grow dark; she saw her eyes full of a hungry, despairing light, and gradually there crept upon her a sense of fear, of pain, of mortification.

Presently Olive took up the corner-arm, and when Madeline again turned her face toward him, he was listening to Olive and looking at Claire. It was the same look, yearning, tender.

Claire, still unconscious of his gaze, was looking at Madeline, as she played softly on.

As Olive and Clarence talked, Claire saw the face of the girl grow dark; she saw her eyes full of a hungry, despairing light, and gradually there crept upon her a sense of fear, of pain, of mortification.

Presently Olive took up the corner-arm, and when Madeline again turned her face toward him, he was listening to Olive and looking at Claire. It was the same look, yearning, tender.

Claire, still unconscious of his gaze, was looking at Madeline, as she played softly on.

As Olive and Clarence talked, Claire saw the face of the girl grow dark; she saw her eyes full of a hungry, despairing light, and gradually there crept upon her a sense of fear, of pain, of mortification.

Presently Olive took up the corner-arm, and when Madeline again turned her face toward him, he was listening to Olive and looking at Claire. It was the same look, yearning, tender.

Claire, still unconscious of his gaze, was looking at Madeline, as she played softly on.

As Olive and Clarence talked, Claire saw the face of the girl grow dark; she saw her eyes full of a hungry, despairing light, and gradually there crept upon her a sense of fear, of pain, of mortification.

Presently Olive took up the corner-arm, and when Madeline again turned her face toward him, he was listening to Olive and looking at Claire. It was the same look, yearning, tender.

Claire, still unconscious of his gaze, was looking at Madeline, as she played softly on.

As Olive and Clarence talked, Claire saw the face of the girl grow dark; she saw her eyes full of a hungry, despairing light, and gradually there crept upon her a sense of fear, of pain, of mortification.

Presently Olive took up the corner-arm, and when Madeline again turned her face toward him, he was listening to Olive and looking at Claire. It was the same look, yearning, tender.

Claire, still unconscious of his gaze, was looking at Madeline, as she played softly on.

As Olive and Clarence talked, Claire saw the face of the girl grow dark; she saw her eyes full of a hungry, despairing light, and gradually there crept upon her a sense of fear, of pain, of mortification.

Presently Olive took up the corner-arm, and when Madeline again turned her face toward him, he was listening to Olive and looking at Claire. It was the same look, yearning, tender.

Claire, still unconscious of his gaze, was looking at Madeline, as she played softly on.

As Olive and Clarence talked, Claire saw the face of the girl grow dark; she saw her eyes full of a hungry, despairing light, and gradually there crept upon her a sense of fear, of pain, of mortification.

Presently Olive took up the corner-arm, and when Madeline again turned her face toward him, he was listening to Olive and looking at Claire. It was the same look, yearning, tender.

Claire, still unconscious of his gaze, was looking at Madeline, as she played softly on.

As Olive and Clarence talked, Claire saw the face of the girl grow dark; she saw her eyes full of a hungry, despairing light, and gradually there crept upon her a sense of fear, of pain, of mortification.

Under New Manage- ment.

The undersigned wish to announce that they have taken over the business formerly conducted by Mr. W. W. Bole, and this will be known in future as "The Moose Jaw Drug and Stationery Store," and be under the management of Mr. J. H. Middagh.

THE NEW FIRM

Assumed control on Nov. 1st and respectfully solicits a continuance of the patronage so liberally bestowed on the late management. We will carry a stock complete and up to date in every particular, paying strict attention to dispensing. All orders by mail or otherwise shall receive prompt and careful attention.

Drs. Turnbull & McCulloch.

The Moose Jaw Times.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER, 11 1898.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

Mr. Thos. Aspin, of Wolseley, was in town last Saturday.

Mr. Jas. Thompson, of Wood Mountain, was in town last week.

Mr. R. K. Thomson, of Boham, has moved into town for the winter.

Mr. Davis, of the Uxbridge Piano Co., was in town this week, and appointed Mr. Thos. Battell local agent.

Snow fell Sunday afternoon and night to the depth of several inches. By all appearances it has come to stay.

Rev. T. Ferrier, of Edmonton, passed through here last Sunday week en route from a visit to Brandon.

Mrs. Fred. Crapper and family, of Regina, are visiting Mrs. Crapper's parents here, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bates.

Mr. D. Rollo left on Sunday morning for Medicine Hat, to which place he has been transferred instead of Revelstoke, as was intended last week.

The wife and family of Dr. P. F. Sizer, dentist, have moved up from Regina and will occupy the late residence of Dr. McColloch, on High street, east.

Miss Mabel McLeod left on Wednesday afternoon for her home in Brandon, after visiting her sisters, Mrs. Sam. Cameron and Mrs. Walter Allison for a month.

Mr. J. H. Parry attended the farewell dance given at the Barracks, Regina, last Friday evening to the contingent of Mounted Policemen who are leaving for the Klondike.

At a meeting of the teachers and officers of the Presbyterian Sunday School it was decided to have a Christmas festival for the children instead of the usual entertainment. The festival will be held on Wednesday, December 28th.

Do you want your friends in the east to be familiar with the progress and prosperity of Moose Jaw and district? If you do leave their address and the price of six months' or a year's subscription and we will send them The Times.

Stock Inspector Ben Fletcher, V.S., has laid information against Elliott Gordon for shipping a train load of cattle from this place before they were inspected, contrary to North-West Ordinance. The case will likely come up for hearing before W. C. Sanders to-morrow.

At the meeting of the shareholders of the Moose Jaw Hockey and Skating Association held in the council chamber last Friday evening it was decided to call for tenders for the renting of the rink for the skating season. Another meeting is called for next Friday, Nov. 18th, when the annual election of officers will take place.

Mr. J. A. Whitmore, of Regina, who has the honor of being Moose Jaw's first postmaster, but who was transferred to the Capital in 1889, was in town last Saturday en route to Yellow Grass, to visit his son, Bert, who is there now. This is Mr. Whitmore's first visit to Moose Jaw since leaving for Regina eight years ago, and he was astonished at the progress made during that time; in fact he hardly knew the town. Mr. Whitmore is healthy and hearty and is enjoying his usual good health.

Yesterday week Const. Ching charged Fred Hawkins with wantonly, cruelly and unnecessarily abusing a horse. The case came up for hearing in the court house before Frank Lewis, of Caven, and W. C. Sanders, J.P.'s. The evidence went to show that the horse had a calloused lump on its shoulder, which rendered it unfit for work. The accused was fined $1.00 and costs ($6.00); the magistrates taking into account his unfortunate circumstances, but wanted it distinctly understood that this would not always be done.

Last Friday night a sad accident happened whereby Mrs. W. G. Bell received severe injuries, and her home had a narrow escape from being burned down. She arose in the middle of the night to attend to her son Ed., who was suffering from an attack of typhoid fever, and in some way the lamp broke and exploded, setting her clothes and the room on fire. Mrs. Bell's hands and her chest are very badly burned, and it was with difficulty that the fire was extinguished in the house. She is now doing as well as can be expected, although suffering much from the effects of the accident. Ed. is now con-two new sewing machines for sale at a bargain. Apply to J. U. Mumus.—Adv.

$1.50 will secure THE MOOSE JAW TIMES for the balance of the nineteenth century. Subscribe now.

Mr. Sam. Sanders, manager of the Grenfell Creamery, returned home this week. He reports a very successful season so far.

Moose Jaw Market:—Wheat No. 1, 51 cts; No. 2, 48 cts; Hay, 80¢ per ton; potatoes, 50 cts; butter, 22 cts; eggs, 25 cts; (very scarce.)

Rev. J. C. Cameron and Geo. Hyslop are the delegates from Moose Jaw to the Presbyterian Synod which met in Winnipeg on Tuesday.

Skiating has commenced on the river at this place, but it would be well if our young folk would wait a few days until the ice gets a little stronger.

We receive a consignment of oysters from St. Paul on Wednesday morning each week, and sell them in bulk or served. W. C. Sanders, Confectioner.

Mr. Bonneau and Mr. Legare, of Willow Bunch, and Mr. Bonneau, Jr., from Wood Mountain, are in Regina this week and report cattle doing well and abundance of feed.

The hypnotic entertainment in Central Hall last night drew a crowded house. The Great McEwen is all that he claims to be. He will also appear to-night and to-morrow night.

Two car loads of dogs arrived at Regina from Labrador. They have been three months on the way and have been shipped to the Klondyke for the use of the North-West Mounted Police.

Mr. S. D. Barnes, who has been here for the past ten days in the interests of the Chosen Friends' society, left on Wednesday for Caron, where he intends instituting a council of the order, which is a beneficiary society.

Last Monday Mr. D. Copeland returned from Regina where he had been to secure a grist. Mr. Copeland bought his wheat in Regina and had it gristed there, thereby saving a considerable haul. He is well satisfied with the result.

Mr. Wm. H. Beesley, brother to Postmaster J. G. Beesley, of Marlborough, who arrived here last spring, has taken up a homestead and expects his wife and family to arrive from Clinton, Ont., in a few days. They will live in Mr. Falconer's new residence this winter.

The annual Thanksgiving supper of St. John's church Ladies' Guild will be held in Central Hall Nov. 24th, 1898. Extensive preparations are being made and a good programme is in course of preparation. Admission 35 cents. Supper served from 6 to 8 o'clock. Programme to commence at 8:30.

The anniversary services of the Methodist church will be held on Sunday Nov. 20th. On the following Monday evening the Rev. W. A. Vrooman will give a lecture in the church the subject being, "Rip Van Winkle—Redivivus." There will also be an excellent musical and literary programme.

The many friends of Mr. D. Jamieson, Presbyterian student, who labored for some time in the Estevan mission field and occasionally visited Moose Jaw, will regret to learn of his death, which occurred at Manitoba College, Winnipeg, on Oct. 28th. He suffered considerably during the last week of his illness, but died quite peacefully.

Miss McBain, who has been visiting her brother, Donald McBain, of Marlborough, and Miss Cassie Fraser, who has been the guest of her brothers, Messrs. J.D. and Paul Fraser, also of Marlborough, returned east Monday afternoon, after spending three months in the district. Miss McBain goes to Parkhill, Ont., and Miss Fraser to Picton, N. S.

Remember Mr. H. W. Richardson's charming lecture entertainment on Wednesday evening next, the 16th inst., in Russell Hall. In his famous lecture "Love, Courtship, and Marriage," enlivened with Scottish song and story, he gives beautiful descriptions of home scenes between lover and sweetheart, husband and wife, young and old. His introduction of one piece of quaint Scotch vocal music in one of his bright home scenes is rendered so feelingly that every heart is thrilled and moved by the pathos and power of the words and music. The eastern papers say it is a great treat which no one should miss enjoying.

Notwithstanding the short notice given Mr. John Furnis of his transfer to Calgary, his fellow employees found time to take up a subscription and present him with a handsome solid gold ring with opal setting, on the evening before his departure as a token of the esteem in which he is held. The presentation took place at his residence last Thursday when the "Roundhouse Boys" called to give him a "send off." Shortly afterwards Mr. Furnis entertained the boys to an oyster supper, and a very pleasant evening was spent. "Jack" has spent a good many years in Moose Jaw, and has endeared himself to all who know him. Mrs. Furnis will remain until next spring.

The Curling Club Organized.

The public meeting held in the town hall last Friday evening resulted in the formation of a curling club, and the election of the following officers for the current year:—President, Jas. H. Ross, M.L.A.; Honorary members, Lieut.-Governor Forget, N. F. Davin, M.P., A. Smith, of C.P.R. Dining Hall; and J. G. Gordon of Silverton, B. C.; Vice-president, O. Field; Vice-president, John Rutherford; Secy-Treasurer, H. Whitmore; Chaplin, J. H. Wilcox; Representatives, A. H. Hiecock and G. K. Smith. A committee consisting of Messrs. W. B. Willoughby, John H. Bunnell, C. D. Fisher, A. Hiecock and Seymour Green, was appointed to arrange maticles and prizes. After a vote of thanks had been unanimously passed by the Council for the free use of hall the club adjourned to meet again at the call of the president. Over 20 names are already on the roll.

GIRTHS.

KERN.—At Moose Jaw, on Wednesday, Nov. 2nd, 1898, to the wife of J. H. Kern, a son.

MARRIAGES.

FRANCES—CURRAN.—At the home of the bride, by Rev. J. C. Cameron, B. A., on Nov. 3, 1898. Elsie Frances to Anna Bella Curran, both of Buffalo Lake,

PLEASING PRESENTATION.

Mr. W. W. Bole Presented With a Handsome Token of Remembrance Before Leaving For Winnipeg.

Last Friday afternoon in the office of Drs. Turnbull & McCulloch a number of Mr. W. W. Bole's many friends met and presented him with a token of remembrance on his departure for Innipeg. Where he and Mrs. Bole will reside in future. The presentation address, which was largely signed, was read by Mr. Octavine Field, who presented Mr. Bole with two Morrocco covered, white silk-lined cabinets, as a token of his high esteem in which he is held both as a business man and a citizen. One cabinet contained a 60 piece, solid sterling silver set, consisting of one dozen dinner, desert and tea spoons, and one dozen dinner and tea knives and forks, with "W.W.B." engraved on each piece. The other cabinet contained a set of pure ivory-handled dinner and tea knives and forks, and two carving sets, manufactured by Joseph Rodger's, of Shiffield, England. Mr. Bole was over come with surprise and emotion that it was with some difficulty he made a suitable reply, thanking the donors for the kindness shown him and regretting that business necessitated his departure from Moose Jaw, but gave assurance that Moose Jawites would always be welcome to his home in Winnipeg. After a final hand-shake the party dispersed and Mr. Bole left on the afternoon train about half an hour afterwards.

As previously announced in these columns Mr. Bole has disposed of his drug and stationery business to Drs. Turnbull & McCulloch and has taken an interest in the Bole Drug Company, (Limited) of Winnipeg, a wholesale drug firm of which his brother, D. W., is president. Mr. Bole's departure is a distinct loss to Moose Jaw, and one which will be keenly felt for many a day. Mr. Bole came here from Regina some eight years ago, since which time he has always taken an active part in what pertained to the town's welfare—a keen and skilful sportsman with either gun, rod or base-ball bat, a pillar in the Church, an active worker in the Sunday School, and an earnest upholder of our educational institutions. At one time Mr. Bole was president of the Moose Jaw Board of Trade, and for the last four years he has been a useful member of the Public School Board of Trustees, where the less of his services will be sorely felt. Mrs. Bole, who left the week before last to visit friends at Regina before going to Winnipeg, will also be greatly missed, especially in church circles, having always been an active Christian worker, in token of which the Methodist Ladies' Aid presented her with and address accompanied by a silver broad bray before her departure. The good wishes of hosts of friends in and around Moose Jaw follow Mr. and Mrs. Bole to their new home in Winnipeg.

—♦—♦—

A PRETTY WEDDING.

The Nuptials of Miss Lyle Naismith and Mr. C. E. Smith, of Moose Jaw.

Wednesday evening the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Waddell, River street east, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when Mrs. Waddell's sister, Miss Lyle Naismith, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Naismith, of Graburn, Assa, was united in marriage to Mr. Charles Frederick Smith, second son of Capt. Smith. The ceremony was performed at 20 o'clock by Rev. J. C. Cameron, B.A., in the presence of the intimate friends of the contracting parties. On this occasion the customary offices of bridegroom and best man were dispensed with, the young couple preferring to go through the trying ordeal alone. After the service was performed, Mr. and Mrs. Smith were driven to their new home in the east end of the same street, where they gave a reception to a large number of friends who gathered to extend their congratulations, among them being the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Naismith, who arrived from Graburn by the afternoon train.

The bride was the recipient of many useful and costly presents, of which the following is a list:

Wm. Armstrong, plate glass mirror; A. and J. Smith, card table; Jno. Waddell, parlor table; Ed. and Geo. Might, wicker rocking chair; E. H. Moorhouse, hall lamp and umbrella stand; Capt. Smith, silver water pitcher; J. W. Smith, silver sugar bowl and spoon holder; Bert Smith, pillow shams; G. and N. Smith, two bed spreads; A. H. Smith, glass tea set; W. S. Baxter, half dozen ivory-handled dessert knives and forks; Jas. Simington, one dozen dessert knives; H. G. Hubbard, one dozen dessert silver tea spoons; A. Brash, one dozen silver tea spoons; J. A. Creagh, half dozen sterling silver, gold lined, coffee spoons; Mabel Lyons, gold lined sugar spoon; Walter Simington, half dozen pie knives; E. T. Gilliland, carving knife; A. Jones and Frank McLean, gray bowls; C. A. Gass, berry dish; Wm. Simington and Arch. McDougal, cruet stand; S. H. Might, pickle cruet; A. Hicks, pepper and salt cruet; McDonald & Kiddle, pepper and salt cruet; C. A. W. Stump, bon-ton dish; R. E. Doran, bon-ton dish; fancy mirror; C. C. Leary, glass silver sugar bowl and spoon; C. A. Holdsworth, silver cake basket; A. J. Christie, and J. Haigh, gold lined cake basket; Dan. McGillivray and A. Holdsworth, silver butter dish and knife; Miss Winnie McLean, pair silver candlesticks; Dan. McLean, rose bowl and spoon; Kathleen Waddell, silver butter knife; Robt. Riddell, silver photo case; J. C. Cameron, colored glass fruit dish; Miss Maggie Russell, hand embroidered picture; Russell Waddell, pocket book and card case; Florence Waddell, bronze condiment stick; Kathleen Waddell, view C. P. R. garden; Baby Dinner Waddell, photograph frame; Jno. Franks, fancy pin cushion and hairpin holder; Miss Kate McLean, pair button hole holders; Robt. Martin, chenille table cover; Wm. Franks, chenille table cover; Geo. Hoyal, half lamp.

—♦—♦—

THE CURLING CLUB ORGANIZED.

The public meeting held in the town hall last Friday evening resulted in the formation of a curling club, and the election of the following officers for the current year:—President, Jas. H. Ross, M.L.A.; Honorary members, Lieut.-Governor Forget, N. F. Davin, M.P., A. Smith, of C.P.R. Dining Hall; and J. G. Gordon of Silverton, B. C.; Vice-president, O. Field; Vice-president, John Rutherford; Secy-Treasurer, H. Whitmore; Chaplin, J. H. Wilcox; Representatives, A. H. Hiecock and G. K. Smith. A committee consisting of Messrs. W. B. Willoughby, John H. Bunnell, C. D. Fisher, A. Hiecock and Seymour Green, was appointed to arrange maticles and prizes. After a vote of thanks had been unanimously passed by the Council for the free use of hall the club adjourned to meet again at the call of the president. Over 20 names are already on the roll.

—♦—♦—

BIRTHS.

KERN.—At Moose Jaw, on Wednesday, Nov. 2nd, 1898, to the wife of J. H. Kern, a son.

MARRIAGES.

FRANCES—CURRAN.—At the home of the bride, by Rev. J. C. Cameron, B. A., on Nov. 3, 1898. Elsie Frances to Anna Bella Curran, both of Buffalo Lake,

A Woman's Confidence.

Is the hardest thing for a store to get but the easiest thing to keep. You can't fool a woman more than once. You can't pull cotton over her eyes and call it wool. You can't sell her stale groceries and make her believe their fresh; nor you can't convince her that a price is honest if it isn't. Although it is only a few months since we opened up in Moose Jaw

WE HAVE SECURED THE CONFIDENCE

Of hundreds of housekeepers who continue to buy all their groceries from us month after month. The quality of our groceries and the price we sell them at is the only thing that has won this confidence and we do what we can to keep it. But there are a few who have not given us a chance to win their confidence. To such we would say we want your trade but only ask it on condition that we can benefit you.

J. J. & A. MCLEAN.

NOTE.—Our groceries represent absolute perfection in all respects, and it is to your interest to try them.

FURS

FURS

Buy Reliable Furs.

Furs probably require more care and skill in their selection than the great majority of articles of attire. The processes through which the raw skins pass ere they evolve in the shape of manufactured articles make or mar the fur. Great experience is therefore necessary to know if the furs are good in every respect.

In Buying From Us

You Can Get the Best

that is procurable. We have never shown so large an assortment of high class furs as we are doing this season, and prices are no higher than you pay for second grade furs. We have men's coon coats at $19.50, $30.00, $35.00, $37.50, $40.00. Extra picked choice skins, very dark coon, at $45.00 and $50.00. Men's astrachan coat coats at $14.00 and $18.00. Men's wallaby coats, $18.00 and $20.00. Ladies' Doone jackets, made up in latest style and finish, extra dark stripe skins, $35.00, $40.00 and $45.00. Ladies' astrachans, $30.00, $35.00, $40.00 and $45.00. Ladies' Tasmania coats at $25.00 and $28.00. Caps, wedge or Dominion shapes. Black astrachan (extra good value) $15.00. Ast. Beaver, $2.50 and $4.00. Persian lamb, $4.50, $5.00, $6.00 and $8.50. We have also a beautiful range of beaver, otter and seal caps, collars and gauntlets.

—♦—♦—

IF YOU ARE GOING TO BUILD

WRITE TO

FRASER & CAMERON,

INDIAN HEAD.

We are Architects and Builders.

IT WILL PAY YOU TO CONSULT US.

Central Hall,

Ladies,

Attention!

LOVE, COURTSHIP AND MARRIAGE,

Enlivened with Scottish Song and Story.

BY H. W. RICHARDSON,

The Popular Canadian Lecturer & News paper Correspondent.

LOST.

Lost on Oct. 19th, 1898, near Caron, one red and white cow, and one yellow cow with star on forehead, marked with black paint X or left side. J. FURNIS. 18-20p

TFNDERS.

Tenders will be received by the undersigned up till noon on Tuesday, November 15th, 1898, for the rental of the Moose Jaw Hockey & Skating rink, for the season of 1898-99. ALEX. MCKENZIE, Secy. 19.

Lovers and sweet hearts, husbands and wives, old and young should hear this wonderfully interesting lecture. The lecturer is highly spoken of by the Toronto Mail and Globe and other leading Canadian papers as well as by the clergy and others. Mayor Bogue in the chair. Music provided by local talent.

Tickets 25 cts. Children under 12 years 15 cts.

God Save the Queen.

—♦—♦—

MISS CLARKE,

Also a Large Stock of Hosiery on hand.